

Two-day camp on diabetes ends in Savar

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Savar

A two-day diabetes camp organised by Novo Nordisk, a global healthcare company, the Diabetic Association of Bangladesh, and World Diabetes Foundation concluded in Khagan of Savar yesterday.

Eighty children out of 1,912 who are being treated under the Changing Diabetes in Children (CDiC) programme of Novo Nordisk participated in the programme held at Brac Centre, said a press release.

The camp featured a lot of events including a concert, a comedy show, Victory Day programmes, a talent show and a dance show.

The camp is being organised annually since 2009.

Jakob Haugaard, deputy head of mission, Embassy of Denmark, was the chief guest at the programme in which Prof AK Azad Khan, president of the Diabetic Association of Bangladesh; Prof Kishwar Azad, director at CDiC; and Asaduzzaman, GM of Transcom Distribution Company Ltd, among others, participated.

UPCOMING MUNICIPALITY POLLS IN CHITTAGONG Patiya abuzz with campaigns

ARUN BIKASH DEY, Ctg

As the municipality election is only around two weeks away, all four mayoral candidates in Patiya municipality of Chittagong are busy campaigning from early morning to midnight.

Visiting the area on Tuesday, The Daily Star found that the lanes and by-lanes were abuzz with campaigns. People said this time they were more enthusiastic as the polls are going to be held under party banners and symbols.

Locals expect that the future mayor will remove waterlogging and drainage problems and improve waste management.

They demand the roads currently dilapidated be renovated with footpath facilities.

Jasim Uddin, a businessman of ward 2, said students were at health risk due to unclean dustbins on their way to institutions and homes.

Locals said students were suffering as there was no footpath beside the roads in front of Patiya Government College, Patiya Model High School and Rahat Ali High School.

Didar-ul-Alam, proprietor of Alam Store at Munsef Bazar, said most of the roads in the municipality went under knee-deep water during monsoon.

Locals said a tripartite vote battle is going to happen in the upcoming polls among the ruling Awami League nominated candidate and incumbent mayor Harun-ur-Rashid, BNP nominated Tauhidul Alam and Jatiya Party's Shamsul Alam. One Md Ibrahim will contest as an independent candidate.

Of them, Shamsul was elected for two terms in the past. Tauhidul, a joint general secretary of Chittagong south district unit of Jatiyatabadi Jubo Dal, is a new face, said locals.

However, Tauhidul has a large number of supporters as the election will be held under party banner, said a resident Tanvir Hossain, adding, "Many voters will cast their ballots only after seeing electoral symbols."

A total of 34,512 voters are expected to cast their ballots to elect a mayor and nine councillors for nine wards and three female councillors for three reserved seats on December 30.

AL candidate Harun, who was campaigning in ward 3, said the condition of 80 percent of roads was good and tender had been floated for repairing the rest.

ELECTORAL CODE OF CONDUCT AL men continue violations in municipality polls

PANKAG KARMAKAR

Ruling Awami League (AL) men allegedly continue violating the electoral code of conduct centring the municipality polls while apparently turning a deaf ear to the Election Commission's (EC) repeated directives.

Allegations include participation of AL lawmakers and a whip of parliament in election campaigns for mayoral candidates backed by the party, bringing out processions and pasting posters on walls, all violating the code formulated by the EC.

In Sherpur municipality yesterday, Whip and Sherpur-1 lawmaker Atiur Rahman led a procession on Victory Day with contestant Golam Mohammad Kibria next to him while leaders and activists chanted slogans seeking votes for "boat", reports a correspondent.

Atiur told The Daily Star that displaying the "boat" symbol was not a violation of the code since it symbolises Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, Sheikh Hasina and December, the month of victory.

Returning Officer (RO) Anjan Chandra Paul said use of an electoral symbol in a Victory Day procession was "not expected" and that he would talk to the whip.

In Chatmohar municipality of Pabna on Monday, Pabna-3 lawmaker Mokbul Hossain campaigned for Shakhawat Hossain at a meeting AL Chatmohar upazila unit organised at the upazila Muktiyoddha Sangshad where Mokbul was the chief guest, reports our correspondent.

Makbul asked the party men to work together for the "boat" symbol in the municipality election, meeting sources told The Daily Star. Shakhawat said Makbul had blessed him. Makbul denied conducting any campaign, claiming it was the AL unit's extended meeting.

The code bars ministers, lawmakers, whips and other VIPs from joining any electoral activity.

In Barguna municipality, aspirant Kamrul Ahsan brought out a procession with several hundred supporters on Tuesday night, halting vehicular movement on different streets of the city, reports a correspondent. Kamrul termed it a campaign, not a procession.

The code prohibits processions and public rallies. However, candidates can organise street rallies without halting public and vehicular movement.

In Chapainawabganj municipality, posters seeking votes for aspirant Samiul Haque Liton were found pasted on different wall, reports our correspondent. Pasting posters on wall or vehicles is prohibited by the code.

The EC issued show cause notices on December 6 to three AL MPs -- Safiqul Islam Shimul (Natore-2), MA Malek (Dhaka-20) and Shawkat Hasnur Rahman (Barguna-2) for similar violations.

All replied that they were sorry and pledged to refrain from violating the rules

VICTORY DAY CELEBRATED IN INDIA

Bangladeshi freedom fighters and Indian war veterans and serving officers of the Armed Forces yesterday commemorated their victory over Pakistani troops in 1971.

Bangladesh Food Minister Md Qamrul Islam, along with other serving and retired officers of the 30-member Bangladeshi delegation who were present, placed a wreath at War Memorial in Fort William.

Victory Day celebrations at Eastern Command assume a special significance as freedom fighters and Indian war veterans who fought shoulder to shoulder reunite every year in Kolkata to celebrate the momentous occasion in history.

Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi saluted the courage and indomitable spirit of Indian Armed Forces on Victory Day.
