

IN MARVEL OF MELODIES

NOVEMBER remained a month of music for Dhaka dwellers, with three large-scale International festivals taking the audience on a transcending journey. It started with the three-day Jazz & Blues Festival at the Army Museum Ground on November 5-7. The next weekend saw crowds swarming the Army Stadium for the Dhaka International Folk Festival that saw renowned folk musicians from South Asia, along with performers from China and Ireland swaying tens of thousands. The month ended with the Bengal Classical Music Festival from November 27, the biggest single-stage festival of classical music in the world. Legends of classical music performed the purest forms of instrumental and vocal music at the Army Stadium, as people from all walks of society stayed up all night to bask in its magnificence.

Photo: RIDWAN ADID RUPON

