

Cop, two others arrested over Ashulia abduction

Victim rescued

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Savar

Rab yesterday arrested a Dhaka Metropolitan Police constable and two others and rescued from a Dendabor house in Ashulia a man who had been kidnapped on Saturday from Palli Bidyut area, situated nearly a kilometre away.

The kidnapers demanded Tk 1 lakh over the phone from the family and beat Md Asadul Islam alias Kajol, 32, said a press release of Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) which acted upon Kajol's wife's complaint.

The arrestees are constable Torikul Islam, 32, Tara Miah, 54, and Md Liton, 36. Attempts are on to arrest the house's owner Anower Hosen, 40 and the prime accused, Tomal Hosen, 20.

Rab said Torikul used an unregistered motorbike and a pair of handcuffs in committing crimes.

Dr Guha Roy Chy passes away

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Dr BN Guha Roy Chowdhury alias Bhumendra Guha, the researcher who enriched Bangla literature by bringing works of eminent poet Jibanananda Das to public view, died of old age complications in a Kolkata hospital yesterday, aged 92.

Born on August 2, 1933, Guha himself was a poet and a literary critic and had published 10 poetry collections.

Guha, a cardiac surgeon by profession, edited the manuscript of Jibanananda's works "Kobitar Kotha", "Ruposhi Bangla", "Bela Obela Kalbela" and fiction "Mallyaban" and deciphered about 1,500 poems by Jibanananda.

The Jibanananda Das Academy in Bangladesh yesterday expressed deep shock at the death of this litterateur.
