8 journo get fellowships on farm sector reporting

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
Society for Media and Suitable Human-Communication Techniques (SoMaSHTE) yesterday organised a seminar on the contribution of women to the agriculture sector of our country.

The programme -- organised in association with Oxfam -- was held at a city hotel where eight journalists were awarded fellowships on farm sector reporting.

The discussants at the seminar said among the 25 steps of rice farming -- from seed management to marketing -- women participate in 20 steps.

They also engage themselves in homestead gardening, goat and chicken rearing apart from their household work, the speakers added. Dhaka University Journalism Professor Golam Rahman chaired the programme where Oxfam Country Director Snehal V Soneji was present.

'Abduction survivor' Ruet BCL leader returns to family

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Rajshahi
"Kidnapped" Bangladesh Chhatra League leader Saifuzzaman Sohag, who was found in Chittagong early Wednesday after 14 days, was handed over to his family yesterday.

Earlier, a Rajshahi court recorded his statement when police produced him before it.

Sohag's family said his "abductors" released him blindfolded near a roadside restaurant in Chittagong's Mirsarai.

On December 10, Sohag, a 4th year student of mechanical engineering at the Rajshahi University of Engineering and Technology and information and research affairs secretary of Ruet BCL unit, was picked up from his city residence by plainclothes men who identified themselves as Rab members.

However, both the local police and the Rab said they did

Crude bomb found in Ctg College

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg
An abandoned crude bomb was found on the Chittagong College campus yesterday afternoon.

On information that Shibir activists were preparing to conduct subversive activities to establish supremacy in the college, police conducted a drive there and found the bomb near the administrative building. Officer-in-Charge of Chawkbazar Police Station Aziz Uddin said.

However, none was arrested in this connection.

Juta demands legal step
