

Primped for the party

As the clock ticks to the final countdown, be the showstopper and the center-of-attention in Armadio outfits. Just for New Year's, Armadio has created a special line celebrating glamour and elegance with a dab of sensuality.

For the women's couture line, new year's look includes classic velvet gowns and lace dresses in deep shades of blue and emerald green with the right element of adornments.

For a spunky party look, put on Armadio's sequined blazer in smashing gold or jet black, paired with glittered tops and skinny pants and just hit the dance floor! While it gets a little chilly at night, don't forget to put on a light coat or silk jacket. Armadio's outerwear collection for women includes soft silk and lace coats and cotton blend long jackets.

For the urban men, make the right impression with sharp men's suits. Available in classic to slim fits, Armadio formal suits have a truly contemporary look. For timeless style Armadio's got tailoring in black, grey and navy - perfect for any occasion. Try out the velvet blazers for a premium feel!
