

STAR WEEKEND

in other news

January 1, 2016

MANY HEARTS ONE LOVE

FOOTBALL

Krishna, Marzia, Swapna, Nargis- these names might not sound familiar to many of us. But they play integral roles in the young Bangladeshi Under-14 football team, with girls aged 13 to 14 years. They have successfully blessed the country with the joy of triumph as they beat host-nation Nepal by 1-nil to Bangladesh, at the Asian Football Confederation (AFC) Under-14 Girls' Regional Championship. To learn more about the winning moment and the journey of their determination and bravery, turn to pages 8-9.

FAYEKA ZABEEN SIDDIQUA
PHOTO: KAZI TAHSIN AGAZ APURBO

5 THE OTHER SIDE OF THE SILVER SCREEN
Is a conversation with Shabana Azmi on development of villages, her success and failure and how storytelling on celluloid is an inspiration from real life.

6 FOR A BETTER WORLD
Talks about how Shahriar Caesar Rahman helps conserve the environment in remote tribal areas in Chittagong while provide them with an alternative livelihood.

13 DHAKA'S LOST PARADISE
Talks about the splendour and historic importance of Dhaka's Baldha Garden, one of the richest botanical gardens of this subcontinent.

14 THE LOST CHILD OF CHITTAGONG
Tells the tale of how a Bangladeshi boy, Zamor, played a significant role in the French Revolution.

INSIDE

Losing that extra pound.
It starts today.

With discounts on gym membership fees with HSBC Select ATM card

25-40% off

Visit www.hsbc.com.bd/weekly-offer
Call 16240

HSBC