

STAR WEEKEND

in other news...

January 15, 2016

FANTA BAND FOR FUN AND PLAY

NILIMA JAHAN
PHOTO: COURTESY

One of the most popular American singer, song writer, actor and a record producer, who had started out as a young teenager, Justin Timberlake, said that – Teen pop will never die as long as there are teens and popular music. A few weeks ago, Bangladesh witnessed its first ever teen pop music band – 'GTV Fanta Band', spreading the vibe of pop music with fun and joy. With new hopes and aspirations, the teen band is ready to amuse the pop music fanatics of the country. Read this week's spotlight on pages 8 and 9 to know how these new stars and starlets merged into the limelight.

3 THE BIRTH OF A PANOPTICON STATE
Is an opinion piece about the digitalisation of Bangladesh.

4 YET AGAIN!
Is about the recent writ petition to the Highcourt filed by Taimur Islam, along with his team of Urban Study Group (USG), an organisation that campaigns for the conservation of architectural and urban heritage of Old Dhaka.

12 AN ALLUVIAL SOUL
Is about the solo exhibition "Alluvial Soul. Soi. Symbol" by Kalidas Karmakar.

13 THE TEMPLES OF PUTHIA
Introduces the temple complex of Puthia, one of the most significant archaeological sites of Bangladesh.

INSIDE

Steak dreams coming true.
It starts today.

With your HSBC ATM card, enjoy discounts on special food festivals

25% off
on BBQ Fest

Visit www.hsbc.com.bd/weekly-offer
Call 16240

HSBC