Simple yet sophisticated – The Huawei way

A surging section of the Bangladeshi population has joined the fashion bandwagon. Fashion is not merely limited to clothes anymore but has become an integral part of life. Smartphones in particular have become a major fashion statement. Available at a wide range of prices, there is a smartphone out there for almost everyone.

Huawei is the third largest mobile phone manufacturer in the world and the second largest android smartphone maker in Europe. The Honor 4X, one of Huawei's latest introductions deserves special attention for its simple yet sophisticated design, comfortable feel and advanced specifications, all of which comes at an affordable price.

The Honor 4X pays extra attention to details and is elegantly designed. The makers have kept it simple and elegant, yet subtle and sophisticated. Only 8.65 mm wide, the slick handset gives you a wooden feel. Besides having a 5.5" (1280X720) HD resolution screen, the phone has a 75% screen to body ratio, indicating the manufacturer's keen attention to details. This is good news for frequent video watchers and gamers. There is GFF non-air-gap to prevent dust intervention, IPS hyper-viewing angle and 16.7 m colors for better viewing.

Besides that, the phone boasts an integrated speaker box with side speakers that support a volume over 150%. The camera is particularly impressive, with a 13 MP rear camera with LED Flash and a 5 MP front camera. The refocus mode is an instant attention grabber where one can shuffle the focal point in a photo according to his or her preference. There is also a panoramic selfie mode for selfie lovers.

The Honor 4X packs Android 4.4.2 Kitkat operating system which can be updated to Lollipop or Marshmallow. The handset also has Kirin 620 Octa-core 1.2GHz 64Bit A53 processor, an 8 GB ROM accompanied by a 2 GB RAM with a microSD card support.

For customer convenience, the Honor 4X will have customized accessories in the form of Hi Definition Protective Film, PC Cases in a variety of colors, and smart covers. All of this is available for BDT 19,990. If you are looking for a smartphone on a budget, the high on specs and super stylish the Honor 4X is definitely worth considering!
