

'MONEY LAUNDERING' HC to decide on Mosharraf's petition today

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday fixed today for passing an order on a petition filed by BNP leader Khandaker Mosharraf Hossain challenging the lower court order that indicted him in a money laundering case.

After finishing hearing yesterday, the HC bench of Justice Md Ruhul Quddus and Justice Mahmudul Hoque fixed the date.

The Anti-Corruption Commission filed the case with Ramna police on February 6, 2014 accusing the former health minister of amassing over Tk 9.53 crore between 2001 and 2006 and depositing that into a bank account in the UK.

A Dhaka court on October 28 last year framed charges against him in the case.

Mosharraf, who was recently released from jail on the Supreme Court order of bail, filed the revision petition with the HC in November last year.

The BNP leader prayed to the HC to stay the trial proceedings.

On January 10, the apex court upheld an HC order that granted Mosharraf bail on some conditions.

It also directed the lower court concerned to finish the trial proceeding in three months.

incident prompting them to rush to Tongi.

Afterwards, the law enforcers admitted the girl to Dhaka Medical College Hospital at night.

Police detained Sweety Begum, her husband Wahid Dhaly and another member of the family for interrogation.

Officer-in-Charge Kazi Mainul Islam said they found numerous marks of torture on the body of the girl, who had been working in businessman Wahid's residence for three years.

The girl also described her ordeal while talking to journalists at the DMCH last night.

Transport workers staged a wildcat demonstration in Rajshahi city's Talaimari area yesterday, barricading the Dhaka-Rajshahi highway for thirty minutes by putting trucks across the road after a plainclothes policeman allegedly assaulted a truck driver as he "mistakenly hit a chair" of a roadside tea-stall while parking. The barricade was withdrawn following intervention of the workers' leaders. The workers, inset, in an altercation with police.

NIZAM HAZARI'S LAWMAKERSHIP HC starts hearing legality challenge

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday started hearing on the rule issued over the legality of ruling Awami League leader Nizam Uddin Hazari's holding the office of a lawmaker.

The HC issued the rule on June 8, 2014 asking the government, Election Commission and Nizam to explain why his parliament seat should not be declared vacant.

The rule was issued following a writ petition filed by Shakhawat Hossain Bhuiyan, a Jubo League leader of Feni, claiming that Nizam, who was elected unopposed from Feni-2 constituency in January 5, 2014 elections, had resorted to forgery to get out of jail early and run in the polls.

Quoting a newspaper report, Shakhawat in his petition said a Chittagong court had sentenced Nizam to 10 years' imprisonment in an arms case on August 16, 2000.

He surrendered to the court on September 14, 2000, and was sent to Chittagong jail to serve the jail term.

But he was in jail for only five years and was released on December 1, 2005, through fraudulence, Shakhawat claimed.

He said Nizam was supposed to be in jail until September 13, 2010, and he, according to the law, was not supposed to be eligible to run in any parliamentary polls before September, 2015.

The petitioner said Nizam could not have been a candidate in the parliamentary election of January 5, 2014, adding that Nizam had provided false information to the EC about serving his jail term.

Only a mayor or some other officials cannot make the city livable, he said.

Khokon added he would take care of the city streets and wash away dusts.

He also urged every citizen to take part in a symbolic cleaning campaign scheduled for February 14.

President of CDJFB Omar Faruk and secretary Amitosh Paul also participated in the campaign.

would be killed.

The autopsy report said the victims were hit on the heads and strangled.

The case statement said another arrestee, Mahfuz, used to sexually harass his younger brother's wife.

The case has been shifted to the district Detective Branch (DB) of police.

Shafiqul's nephew Mahfuz has been remanded for seven days.

DB Inspector Md Abul Khair told The Daily Star that the court remanded Nazma for five days.

The inspector said in primary investigation, Nazma said that she lent Tk 1.65 lakh to Taslima, but Taslima had not repaid it in one year and she had been hiding.

Nazma admitted that she had threatened to kill her to get the amount back but said she did not kill Taslima, the police official told The Daily Star.
