ZIA CHARITABLE TRUST GRAFT CASE
Proceedings continue
in Khaleda's absence
 COURT CORRESPONDENT

Counsel for BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia yesterday for the second day continued cross-examining the investigation officer of the Zia Charitable Trust corruption case in her absence. Advocate Abdur Rezak Khan cross-examined Harunur Rashid, deputy director of the Anti Corruption Commission (ACC) and also the IO of the case, for over three hours. Khaleda could not appear before the court due to her physical illness, said her another lawyer Sanaulah Miah. With this, Khaleda had skipped trial proceedings in the case for 16 consecutive dates on different excuses. She appeared before the court on September 10 last year. Later on September 16 last year, she left for London for treatment and returned home on November 21. Judge Abu Ahmed Jomadar of the Special Judge's Court-3 of Dhaka recorded statement of the witness and later fixed January 28 for the hearing. On that day, Khaleda's lawyer will again cross-examine the witness. The court also accepted non-appearance of Khaleda yesterday. The ACC on August 8, 2011 filed the case with Tejgaon Police Station, accusing four persons, including Khaleda, of abusing power to raise fund in the name of Zia Charitable Trust.

Seminar on AL-led govt's successes told
 STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Militancy and fundamentalism must be eliminated for the country's progress, speakers told a seminar yesterday. Bangladesh has already reached new heights of development in sectors like economy, infrastructure, and agriculture, but militancy will thwart the progress, they viewed. The seminar, "Seven Years of Change", was organised by the ruling Awami League (AL) at the Institution of Engineers, Bangladesh (IEB) in the capital. Professor Emeritus Anisuzzaman said if militancy and fundamentalism could not be eliminated, the country would not reach its destination. He also laid stress on strengthening democratic institutions and democratic process for overall development of the country. Presiding over the discussion, prime minister's political adviser HT Imam urged people to jointly resist terrorism. Former Supreme Court judge AHM Shamsuddin Choudhury Manik called for punishing the people who perpetrated violence and arson attacks last year. Eminent lawyer Tania Amir said fighting militancy needed the government's policy action, education, and rule of law. Economist Dr Binayak Sen suggested that there should be a bridge between the government and intellectuals to further the development agenda. Professor Emeritus AK Azad Chowdhury presented a paper featuring the government's successes in the last seven years.
