

ON HIGH ROAD TO PROGRESS

SERVICES AND QUALITY OF LIFE

SILVER JUBILEE SPECIAL

PART-3

WEDNESDAY FEBRUARY 3, 2016

EDITOR'S NOTE

This is the third instalment of our silver jubilee special supplement, themed On High Road to Progress. The third part, titled Services and Quality of Life, contains articles under the sub-sections: Lifestyle; Education and Health; and Sports

In celebration of 25 years of The Daily Star's journey, the first and second parts of this series, titled Engines of Growth; and Strengthening Pillars of Economy were published on February 1 and 2 respectively.

We are indebted to the eminent professionals, experts, planners and practitioners in different spheres of economy, enterprise and development who have enriched these supplements with their inputs, analyses and insightful contributions. We are thankful to them for putting together a body of text that is well-researched, lively and forward-looking in the values it adds to the publications.

Be sure to follow up on the subsequent instalments titled, Climate, Women and Sustainable Development; and Way Forward which are set to appear on February 4 and 5 respectively.
