media also flourishes," he observed.

Hamid said, "So you will have to work with devotion and sincerity...You must keep in mind that no individual, institute or nation fall victim to unnecessary harassment for any of your reports."

He also urged journalists to prioritise national interests rather than the publicity and expansion of organisations they worked for.

Mentioning that journalists tend to sense a disparity whenever pay scales for government employees are announced, he said, "I can assure you, as the president, my door is open for you always. I must do whatever is possible on my part."

Though the present age is dubbed that of information revolution, it has downsides too, he observed, adding that the challenge now was to responsibly use this ever-expanding technology for people's welfare.

"The role of media men is very important in this regard," he added.

Information Minister Hasanul Haq Inu, the prime minister's Media Adviser Iqbal Sobhan Chowdhury, Jatiya Press Club President Muhammad Shafiqur Rahman, Bangladesh Federal Union of Journalists acting president Zafar Wazed and DUJ acting president Atiqur Rahman Chowdhury and General Secretary Quddus Afrad also spoke.
