

FARHANA MILI

busy with TV

Popular TV actress Farhana Mili is spending a busy time working on television nowadays. In addition to her regular TV series, she also has a few dramas coming up on Valentine's Day. She will be seen by her fans in upcoming TV productions like Naim Imtiaz Niamul's "Bakshobondi", Oronno Anwar's "Dohon", Alvi Ahmed's "Shunno Theke Shuru" and Hanif Palooan's "Shongshoy".

Mili said that she has been picky with her work and has not worked in any production where the story or the character was not to her liking. The suitability of the character ranks first in her list of priorities which is why there is a variation in the types of characters she plays. She hopes to always play roles that will leave an impression in the audience's minds.

SADIA ISLAM MOU

to become more regular on TV

After a long time, viewers will get to watch actress Mou on a regular basis, in the series TV drama "Rupkothar Maa" which started airing on Ekushey Television from this Tuesday. She plays the titular character in the production which airs every Tuesday to Thursday at 10.00PM. Mou commented that she liked the character very much and it allowed her a large scope in terms of acting skills. The script and direction by Anjan Aich looks promising and Mou is hopeful that the venture will create an impact and the fans will see Mou in a completely different role.
