

CHECK IT OUT

Orchid branches out

The first of its kind in Dhaka, Orchid is a huge department store offering a diverse range of products including fashion, beauty and home items. For customers who do not want to be stuck in Dhaka city, this is a great place to shop with more than adequate variety in all sections.

Orchid was formerly a part of Home n Décor and now stands as a separate entity carrying a large number of home accessories and essentials for all your rooms whilst introducing an affordable yet stylish collection for fashion, beauty and gift products.

The home section in Orchid -- which is currently having a New Year sale -- features home accents, decor and essentials. If you are a home enthusiast, this will be your dream come true! Ranging from decoration pieces to kitchen items to everyday essentials, you will be surprised at the wide range of choices available.

For those who have a passion for fashion, Orchid has a diverse range of fashion and beauty products too. Keeping with the latest fashion trends, you can expect to find shoes, bags, clothes, makeup, hair accessories and jewellery.

Orchid is spread over a large area with a stunning interior, hosting all the conveniences of a world-class department store and is dedicated to giving its customers the ultimate shopping experience.

Located on Progoti Shoroni, Uttor Badda at the BTI Premier Plaza, Orchid is open every Thursday to Tuesday.

DAAGI Art Garage to host 'Weapons can't kill' exhibition

DAAGI Art Garage -- an artist group where all seven artists come from various forms of visual art -- will be showcasing their first group exhibition on February 3. The exhibition titled "Weapons can't kill" will feature works from various different art forms like painting, sculpture, performance art and photography. The artists involved are Sanad Kumar Biswas, Dhiman Sarker, Syed Tarek Rahman, Emran Shohel, Sanjid Mahmud, Rupam Ray and Rasel Chowdhury.

South Asian Media Institute is delighted to be the venue partner for this exhibition. The exhibition opened on February 3 at 5pm. The artists formed a group back in 2013 and were involved in a group show on the banks of Buriganga called Living Scraps in May 2014.

The exhibition will be open from 3pm to 8pm till February 10 at the Pathshala South Asian Media Institute.
