

A SPRING IN YOUR STEP

It's time to pack our coats and sweaters and other assorted knitwear into the dark and murky depths of the backs of our wardrobes, because spring is nearly here. The vibrancy that defines the essence of Bangladeshi culture is returning with Pohela Falgun on the 13th of this month. The gentle February breeze will carry with it the mirth and festivities of a new season, while you're surrounded with vivid oranges and yellows, the traditional colours for spring.
