

BCL INFIGHTING AT CU Two activists held

CU CORRESPONDENT

Police yesterday arrested two activists of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) at Chittagong University (CU) over Monday's factional fighting on the campus.

The arrestees are Md Rakib of history and Imran Hossain of English, said Hathazari Police Station Officer-in-Charge Md Ismail. Seeking anonymity, a BCL activist said the two were loyalists of CU BCL President Mohammad Alamgir Tipu.

On Monday, around six BCL activists were injured as two factions of BCL allegedly led by Tipu and the unit General Secretary Fazle Rabby Sujon clashed over a trifling matter.

Following the incident, Syeda Sultana Rahman, sister of injured BCL activist Arafat Hossain, filed a case against eight BCL activists, accusing them of attempted murder.

Another case was filed by Mirza Khabir, another injured BCL man, against 15 activists, on the charge of carrying out an attack with sharp weapons.

Meanwhile, two general students submitted two separate complaints to the proctor over vandalism at Shah Amanat and Shahjalal halls during the BCL clash.

BCL activists vandalised four rooms of general students of each hall, said the complaints, demanding punishment for those responsible and repair of the rooms.

Proctor Ali Asgar Chowdhury said the rooms would be repaired and the people responsible would face action.

Meanwhile, the CU authorities were preparing to file three separate cases regarding the three incidents of vandalism by BCL activists when the report was filed at 10:00pm, said Registrar Prof Kamrul Huda. BCL activists vandalised the classrooms of the physics department on February 4 and the rooms of the two halls on Monday.

Inter Parliamentary Union (IPU) President Sabir Hossain Chowdhury MP meets United Nations (UN) Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon at the UN Headquarters in New York on Wednesday to discuss the importance of cooperation and strengthening institutional relationship between IPU and the UN. The secretary-general also commended the strong leadership and initiative of IPU in engaging with major UN global processes and helping to shape Agenda 2030 for sustainable development. # 90 students get DU Dean's Award

DU CORRESPONDENT

Dhaka University's Faculty of Arts yesterday conferred the Dean's Award to 90 students who achieved outstanding grades in honours and master's exams in 2013 and 2014 without sitting for any improvements.

Vice Chancellor Prof AAMS Arefin Siddique presented each a certificate and a crest at a ceremony in Nabab Nawab Ali Chowdhury Senate Bhavan.

Prof Arefin urged the students to develop good human qualities, work for people lagging behind in society and practice ethics in their professional lives.

Presided over by the faculty Dean Prof Akhtaruzzaman, the function was also addressed by the guest of honour, renowned educationist Prof Emeritus Serajul Islam Chowdhury, who emphasised on the importance of studying humanities to be a good human being.

Unidentified bodies left at morgue for four months

SHAHEEN MOLLAH

Two unidentified non-Muslim corpses at Dhaka Medical College mortuary could not be handed over to any charity for their burial or cremation even after about four months due to the lack of non-Muslim charities.

The corpses are of a non-Muslim male and a Hindu female, said the mortuary authorities.

An autopsy of the unidentified male, about 50, was conducted at DMC mortuary on October 20 last year and the female was taken to DMCH in a critical condition following a road accident on October 15. Before dying, she said her name was Nandini, added mortuary authorities. She had sindoor along the parting of her hairline and was wearing shankhas (bangles).

Five to six unidentified non-Muslim bodies were usually brought to the mortuary each year, said sources there.

Abdul Halim, assistant director (admin) of charity organisation Anjuman Mofidul Islam, said they do not conduct funeral of corpses belonging to any other religion except Islam. "So we did not receive the bodies," he told The Daily Star.

An organisation in the capital's Shankhari Bazar area used to cremate bodies of Hindu persons about two decades ago. It is not available at present, added morgue source.

Abu Bakar Siddique, officer-in-charge of Shabbagh Police Station, said they kept the bodies at the mortuary and will conduct the burials after identification, which is a usual practise for them. Seeking anonymity, a police official of the station said burials and cremations were delayed due to a fund shortage.

included interviews of martyrs' family members, he said.

Yousuff said an episode on Jamalpur genocide was telecast on July 27, 2009, and he had taken an interview of one Saidur Rahman alias Sadu Chairman and Abdul Wahab as part of the programme.

Prosecutor Tapos Kanti Baul told The Daily Star that Saidur Rahman was a prosecution witness, and the investigation officer had taken his statement, but he died before submission of the probe report in the case.

The prosecution, however, submitted an interview Saidur Rahman had given to Channel i, to the tribunal as a prosecution document, and Yousuff yesterday talked about the interview, said Tapos.

Defence counsels declined to cross-examine Yousuff, and the three-member tribunal led by Justice Anwarul Haque adjourned the case proceeding until March 24.

Mamun, a staff of the stall, said they sold at least 10 books each day.

Meanwhile, 131 new books were launched on the 11th day of the Granthamela.

The fair begins today at 11:00am. The period between 11:00am and 1:00pm was announced as Shishu Prohor [children's hour].

There will also be a music competition for children at the main stage of Bangla Academy today, starting at 9:30am.

Bangabandhu's graphic biography's 2nd edition to be published tomorrow

BSS, Dhaka

The second part of the autobiography based graphic novel on the childhood events of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman will be unveiled tomorrow at 11:00am at the book fair.

This part focuses on Bangabandhu's political awakening and the development of a close relationship with Huseyn Shaheed Suhrawardy, his political mentor, said grandson of Bangabandhu Radwan Mujib Siddiq.

The entire "The Unfinished Memoirs" by Bangabandhu, during his incarceration, would be presented in 12 episodes, said Radwan, also a publisher of the book.
