

Two popular names in the TV industry – Nayeem and Nadia, recently tied the knot, much to the excitement of their fans. Both of them are not only known for their meaningful acting on screen, but also anchoring and dancing professionally, respectively. The newly married couple is not only glowing with happiness and spreading the love wherever they go, they have also become totally mush, clearly head over heels! The Star Weekend caught up with the two in the middle of their shoots to find out more about their Valentine's Day plans.

What is the one thing that you miss about being single?

Nayeem: I don't really miss anything!

Nadia: Nothing at all! Actually I am just enjoying my married life at the moment!

The first song that you listened and connected to a couple?

Nadia: Jo tu mere humdard hain (a track from an Indian movie called Ek Villain.)

Your favourite honeymoon destination?

Nayeem: Koh Samui, Thailand. Nadia: Bangkok, Thailand.

How would you like to spend your Valentine's Day?

Nayeem: I think I will keep looking at Nadia the whole day without any reason!

Nadia: I will be with Nayeem the whole day long!

What is your message to the young couples in love, ready to take the next step?

Nayeem: Think twice about the responsibility you are about to take!

Nadia: Trust the person you love, be honest with him and love him!
