

Mashrafe, Soumya, Jahanara & Salma in "AMRAI PARI"

Bangladesh ODI and T20 skipper Mashrafe Bin Mortaza, opener Soumya Sarkar, women's team skipper Salma Khatun and bowler Jahanara Alam were featured in the last episode of BBC's "Amrai Pari", where they took time from their busy schedules to travel all the way to Tala, Satkhira and work with the local residents there who suffer from water-logged conditions for the majority of the year.

The programme, produced by BBC Media Action, primarily focuses on inspiring stories of people who unite to fight the effects of disasters.

Alam Khan inaugurates the new CMV

The song "Orey Neel Doriya" is more than enough to encapsulate the genius that Alam Khan is as a composer. Many such songs have come to existence through his pen and many singers earned fame in the industry through working with him. Although he now remains mostly indoors and out of sight due to his old age, he was there to inaugurate the new corporate head office for the record label CMV at New Eskaton, Dhaka. Every who's who in the entire industry attended the event like Hasan Matiur Rahman, Jaaney Alam, S I Tutul, Asif Akbar, Joy Shahriar and the likes.

The company executives said that the company is returning after 8 years and they hope to ride the new wave of digital content that's in the industry now.

SELIM NADIA pair up again for NTV drama

In 1999, popular TV actress Nadia Ahmed first got the opportunity to work with National Film Award winning actor and director Shahiduzzaman Selim in the TV drama titled "Durer Manush". Later, they worked together in many series, telefilms and serials. Selim and Nadia are set to appear again in the NTV produced drama "Pagla Hawar Din", scripted by Shuvashish Sinha. Selim will be in the role of Shuvo and Nadia will play Mili, a husband-wife duo in the drama, which is being aired on NTV every Wednesday and Thursday at 9:40PM. Shahiduzzaman Selim opined that, "Structural format of Pagla Hawar Din's story is really nice. My role is that of a bohemian in the serial. Though the character is introverted, there is an idealistic value in that role."

MOUSHUMI-NILOY ON VALENTINE'S DAY

Fans of popular actress Moushumi will have their demands met tomorrow as she returns to the silver screen as the lead in "Bhalobashboi Toh", the late director Belal Ahmed's last movie. The Valentine's Day release will take place in Blockbuster Cinemas, Jamuna Future Park. The world TV premiere of the movie will take place on the same day on Channel i right after the 2 o'clock news.

Produced by Impress Telefilms Ltd, the movie will have actor Niloy in the role opposite to Moushumi. Omor Sunny will also have a role in the movie which was also scripted by Belal Ahmed, who's untimely passing required cinematographer Z H Mintu to step in and finish the movie. Moushumi's new films "Leader", "Ratri'r Jatri", "Shunno Hridoy" and "Postmaster 71" are also scheduled to be released this year. Niloy was last seen opposite Shokh in "Olpo Olpo Prem-er Golpo" and the duo is now spending time as a newly married couple.
