Winter Warmers Project

On the December 19, 2015, DAWN, an initiative taken by the youths of today, held its second Winter Warmers Project. This annual event consisted of volunteers gathering donations of warm winter clothes from different sectors of Uttara, which were then distributed to the poor and homeless by DAWN.

The volunteers were authorised to arrive at the Sector 13 field and then all the teams went off to their designated sectors to start the day's collection. With their dedication and perseverance and the kind benevolence of the residents of Uttara, about 3 trucks full of donations were collected that day - ready to be taken to Bogra and Dinajpur to spread smiles amongst the underprivileged.

Warmth spread amongst the destitutes of Bogra and Dinajpur with the help of Bee Network organisation of Dinajpur who had kindly hosted and helped distribute the clothes to those shivering. DAWN endeavours to create a positive impact through the betterment and growth of society as a whole through more projects aimed to instigate the change our country needs to see.

South Breeze School celebrates 25th Anniversary of The Daily Star

South Breeze School celebrated the 25th anniversary of The Daily Star by holding an intra-school debate tournament. The debaters of Class IX spoke about the motion regarding whether or not media outlets should be allowed to remain in affiliation with religious and political parties. The spectators watched the intellectual argument intently, adding in their own nods of agreement and disapproval.

South Breeze School also held an essay competition for Classes VII and VIII. The students emulated the short story competition recently held by The Daily Star. Students wrote stories of scenarios both real and imagined, through the eyes of journalists and reporters. The plots of the essays ranged from that of war torn countries to alien invasions on our planet - an out of the world experience indeed.
