

WAITING FOR MUSAFIR

Ashikur Rahman came to the spotlight earlier with his directorial debut "Kistimaat". His second venture "Musafir" has finished filming and has received the green light from the censor board. Answering to why the movie is not on the screens yet, despite all clearances, director Ashikur said that they had planned on releasing the film in March this year. However, since that coincided with the ICC T20 World Cup, the new date for probable release will be in April, depending on the decision by the producer Jobayer Alam.

Written and scripted by the director himself, the movie tells the story of a professional assassin's adventures when saving a young girl's life. Lead by the popular Arefin Shuvo and newcomer Marjan Jenifa, the movie will also see appearances by Misha Showdagar, Tiger Robi and Prosun Azad.

PURNIMA coming back?

Popular actress Purnima has been out of the cinebuzz arena for long, busy with her family and personal matters. The fans had little to look forward to but a music video recently released sparked a glimpse of home among them.

The filming of "To be continued" started a few years back, starring Tahsan and Purnima, directed by Iftekhar Ahmed Fahmi. However, production suddenly stopped and the venture seemed abandoned. The film will now be produced by Impress Telefilms, and the release of the new music video is hinting towards that. The song titled "E Amar Kemon Oshukh" saw glimpses of Purnima and Tahsan together and fans are yet again hopeful that Purnima is to return.

"Aynabaazi" to be released on the eve of Independence Day

Filming of Chanchal Chowdhury and debutant Masuma Rahman Nabila starrer "Aynabaazi" was completed last August. The movie is slated to be released on March 25. Directed by Amitabh Reza, it is a psychological thriller centered on the life of a prodigious actor. Partha Barua is also expected to appear in a lead role in the movie. Lutfur Rahman George, Hira Chowdhury, Shawkat Osman and Gausul Alam Shawon also have roles in the production.

Established actor Chanchal Chowdhury has appeared in five movies till date. Another movie, "Valobashi Tare", is under production which will see him as the lead next year. First song of "Aynabaazi", "Alu-Piyaz-Er Kabbo", composed and performed by Arnob has been released and the popular band Chirkutt has performed in the title

PANTHO KANAI and KONA performs Asia Cup theme song

The Asia Cup is well underway and the popular theme song seems to be a hit among the crowds in the stadium stands. As the host country, the theme song "Maro Char, Maro Choy, Laal-Shobujer Hobe Joy" was a duet performance by the popular singer-songwriter Pantho Kanai and the talented Kona. The song has been written by Sohel Afsan and composed by Sumon Kallyan.

Kona was humbled to have had the opportunity yet again, after both her and Pantho Kanai were part of the vocals team for the T20 World Cup theme song and this was the first time the two performed in a duet theme song.
