DU CORRESPONDENT

The Jagannath University authority yesterday suspended its four students for allegedly harassing a female student.

The suspended students are Atikur Rahman, Abu Sufian, Sazida Parveen of management studies and Sadia Islam of Islamic history and culture. They all are fourth-year students.

The decision of suspension was taken as the allegation was primarily proved true after talking with the victim and the accused, university Proctor Noor Mohammad told The Daily Star.

The complaint was sent to the university's sexual abuse prevention cell for further investigation, he said.

According to the complaint, Sazida locked into an altercation with the victim -- a student of music and drama and a journalist at

UNION PARISHAD ELECTIONS 2016

EC likely to postpone polls in 3 Feni UPs

BNP alleges that its candidates facing obstructions, threats

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Election Commission may suspend elections in three union parishads (UPs) in Feni following allegations that BNP aspirants have faced obstructions and threats by ruling Awami League men in submitting nomination papers.

Chikhila, Boxmahmud, and Mirzanagar unions of Parshuram upazila are set to go to polls on March 31, and the deadline for filing nomination papers was March 2.

The deadline was extended by one day following the allegations, but the BNP aspirants did not file nomination papers, paving the way for the three AL chairman candidates in the unions to be elected unopposed. Additionally 23 councillor aspirants, out of 36, are set to be elected uncontested there.

Officials said the EC planned to form a committee to investigate the issue and suspend polling there.

"The election commissioners discussed the issue today. The final decision will be taken tomorrow," EC's secretary Sirazul Islam told The Daily Star last night.

The commission suspended polls in six UPs in Feni's Phulgazi upazila on March 2, and requested the LGRD ministry to suspend the upazila chairman for influencing the election there. The ministry suspended him Sunday.

Besides, the EC also plans to issue warning notices to two MPs -- one in Barguna and the other in Pabna -- to stay away from electoral activities.
