

EATING OUT

THE DEBUT FRAGRANCE FOR MEN

Red velvets at the red window

With an increase in the demand for a good dessert shop, The Red Window is a brand new sweet-based shop in Dhaka.

Owned by Shababa Ishmam, Tasneem Sabrina Hasib and Farhan Ahmed, The Red Window promises to serve fantastic, freshly baked goodies. And with this aim, The Red Window launched in Dhanmondi Road 27 just a few weeks ago. Since then it has become a popular hangout spot, not only for the young generation but for the older generations too!

The Red Window's interior has been designed gracefully and it reflects the name of the shop. After entering, you'll of course be welcomed by smiling faces. If you walk straight, first you'll encounter the mouthwatering display of cakes and cupcakes, and then as you walk ahead, you'll see a red window drawn on the wall to your left. As you walk in further, you'll get the feel of walking into a lavish living room with a TV hung in the centre of the red wall and also with a display case of showpieces and candles. From there on your left, are more cosy sofas and homely decorations. But if you meals and rice bowls and many choices of hot and cold drinks. With the meals priced from Tk 200 to Tk 550 and the drinks ranging from Tk 150 to Tk 280, the food here is pretty reasonable.

One of the main aims of The Red Window is to bring the best dessert experience to Dhaka. Serving food with good quality and taste are their main goals and hence to maintain their promise, they serve freshly baked goods, right after the order goes in!

The Red Window has plenty of plans for the future, starting from introducing new items to their menu, both sweet and savoury. They're also planning on hosting live football and cricket matches and also plan to offer special, new meals for those occasions.

The Red Window has had great reviews since their launch and has been greatly appreciated by the public. So, go and get yourself many mini cupcakes and their signature shakeys and enjoy all the sweetness they have to offer!

choose to look left after entering, you'll be greeted with an old classroom feel, with its hand painted tables and chairs. Sabrina, who decorated the interior, tried her best to make the place as cosy, warm and homely as possible!

Once you find yourself feeling cosy and comfortable, it's a matter of time before you'll want to dive into the endless choices of desserts they have to offer. From red velvet cupcakes to chocolate mousse to Oreo tarts, you can choose any or many since the concept of The Red Window is offering everything as mini versions, so you can choose to taste many at a time. Since everything is served mini, the price range is also low, ranging from Tk 50 to Tk 250, depending on your item of choice. They also sell cakes, as slices and as wholes, which are priced between Tk 800 to Tk 1800.

Their signature milkshakes, the 'Shakey' aren't your ordinary, run-of-the-mill milkshakes. They come in four different flavours: Red Velvet Cheesecake, Waffelicious Peanut Butter, Chocolate Profiterole and Cookie Crush, with the price ranging from Tk 210 to Tk 280.

The Red Window doesn't just serve desserts and shakes, but also a variety of savouries. They have different whole
