

BEING A RESPONSIBLE FAN

The cricket craze has peaked and some fans are taking their passion for the teams they support to popular social media like Twitter and Facebook. Some are taking to reddit to showcase the love they have for their teams.

However, a lot of the passion gets fuelled into hatred which ultimately portrays the entire fanbase in a bad colour. We all are extremely jubilant when our team is the victor and we all dwell in sadness when we lose. In these times when our emotions hit the peak, it is important to stay humble and graceful. Banter is always welcome in sports but we should not resort to extremities; there is always a limit that we should do our best to not cross. Let's be the bigger men and women. Our boys will talk with their actions on the pitch. And we'll be there to cheer them on.

– Shahrukh Ikhtear, Sub-editor, SHOUT

THIS WEEK'S HORRORSCOPE

ARIES

Oh my dear Aries, you should eat more berries.

TAURUS

It would be better if you performed a chorus.

GEMINI

Start practising making beguni.

CANCER

You are a disco dancer; smoking causes cancer.

LEO

It'll be hilarious if a Leo comes from Rio.

VIRGO

Have you watched Fargo yet?

LIBRA

Try riding a zebra.

SCORPIO

And the scorpio goes to Leo.

SAGITTARIUS

Never run after a No. 7 bus.

CAPRICORN

Popcorn is harmful for you.

AQUARIUS

At least say "Arigatou gozaimasu."

PISCES

Never let others break your heart into pieces.

APP REVIEW

GAMEZEN

TAIMUR RAHMAN

Platforms: iOS

Are you the sort of gamer who will comb through the entire library of a console and handpick several titles to play? Are you also bad at making lists? Well, GameZen is an app for you.

It has an enormous library of games to choose from, consoles ranging from SNES to PS4.

You are greeted with a simple user-friendly interface and a preloaded game library of a console. If you have a new gen console like the Wii U, you can always update the library.

After selecting the console where you'll be digging through its library, you can tick the games with the following: "Have Played", "Owned", "Want to Own". In this way, a huge list can get smaller and smaller with each redo. It could've put a progress report or another label like Finished.

For the free version, I haven't encountered requests to rate the app. This provides an irritation free experience. I did however; get ads after viewing a game. You can't really check the gameplay of any game but there is an unnecessary in built browser to help.

Like all iOS apps, this too comes with most of its redeeming features on its paid version. On the free version, you can only access one platform out of six, and you are stuck with it unless you reinstall it.

Note: If you are a multi platformer and have several games to play for each console, then you probably have more than enough money for the paid version.

MIXTAPE

JOURNEY

Keane

Somewhere Only We Know

Iron Maiden

The Trooper

The Black Keys

Gotta Get Away

U2

Where the Streets Have No Name

Daft Punk

Around the World

Journey

Lights