

SIX ARTISTS SING FOR INDEPENDENCE DAY

Six artists across several generations are coming together to collaborate for one Independence Day song. The artists are Samina Rahman, Syed Abdul Hadi, Partha Barua, Shafiq Tuhin, Kona and Imran.

The song is a patriotic number that goes – “Onek Daam e Pawa Tumi, Rokto Diye Kena...” written by Shafiq Tuhin with Marcel as the music director. The recording has been completed at Premix Studios and the audio-video production is underway at Eagle Music, and it is scheduled for release on TV and on YouTube on March 26.

HUMAYUN FARIDI One Last Time

The final film starring renowned actor Humayun Faridi has been submitted at the Censor Board and will be released soon upon approval. The shooting for the film – “Ek Jobaner Zamindar, Here Gelen Eibar” - began in 2009 but its release was postponed because of the death of producer Nazim Uddin Chairman.

The film's release was postponed again after Faridi's death. Directed by Uttam Akash, the film revolves around a zamindar (Humayun Faridi) who takes his promises very seriously and makes sure they are fulfilled. The story takes a turn when he pledges to give all his property to a poor man. Born in 1952 in Dhaka's Narinda, Faridi made his television debut through the drama, “Nil Nokshar Shondhaney” in 1982. He won the hearts of millions through his work over the years and breathed his last on 13th February, 2012.

Saimon Sadik stuck on “Mon” titles

Popular film actor Saimon Sadik seems to be stuck to titles with the word “Mon” (Mind) in his credit titles. In a recent press conference, he has announced that he will be next seen in Debashish Biswas' upcoming film “Mon Joley.” Saimon said, “I signed on for the film back in 2011, and Debashish trusted that I will be able to make the character stand out. Although it has taken a long time, I'm glad that the work for the film is finally starting.”

Director Debashish also added that, “It seems like the word 'Mon' is not letting go of Saimon anytime soon as the movies 'Poramon,' 'Purey Jaye Mon' and 'Mon Joley' all had Saimon in the lead role. I also noticed that even his name is Sai-Mon.” He also said that Pori Moni will be seen opposite Saimon and the shoot is scheduled to begin in the upcoming August.

New Indo-Bangla joint production starts

Another new joint production of Bangladesh and India was announced in a ceremony held at Hotel Westin. Abdul Aziz's Jaz Multimedia and Kolkata based film personality Ashok Poti's SK Movies is about to produce the movie titled “Shikari”.

The shooting started on March 14th before moving on to Bangladesh and UK. Jakir Hossain Shimanto from Bangladesh and Joydev from West Bengal will jointly direct “Shikari”. The movie casts Shakib Khan and Tollywood's famed actress Srabonti opposite each other. This will be Srabonti's first assignment under a Bangladeshi project. Interestingly, the famous Bollywood actor Rahul Bose will also star in the movie where he will play the antagonist. Ashok Dhanuka of SK Movies and Tollywood actor Om were also present.

