

CHECK IT OUT

Mermaid Eco Resort to host Yoganika Weekend

Mermaid Eco Resort is proud to bring the Yoganika Weekend. The three day weekend is scheduled to start on April 14 and offers the ultimate relaxation experience with ashtanga in the morning and gentle yin yoga in the afternoon with the highly acclaimed and certified trainer, Anika.

The weekend offers ranayama, sunset meditations, relaxation, waves and lots of fun at the one of the most beautiful beach resorts in South East Asia. Coupled with candlelit organic dinners under a starlit sky and healthy drinks, the weekend promises to be a truly one of a kind experience.

The three day retreat at the Mermaid Eco Resort will only cost TK 20,000. The rooms can also be shared by two people and the costs can be split. Mermaid has paid special attention to ensure that all the meals of the guests throughout the day are organic and vegetarian.

For more information, please contact: 018414164

Sailor Celebrates Independence Day

Sailor, a lifestyle brand in Bangladesh, has brought out souvenir fashion products honouring the seven Bir Sreshthos on the occasion of Independence Day. This line of products includes various high-definition canvas prints on single jersey t-shirts depicting the images of the seven Bir Sreshthos. These t-shirts have a vintage look and feel to them, and are priced at Tk 790. For more details, visit Sailor's Facebook page at facebook.com/clothings.sailor.

Renowned Clinic 'Vibes' Comes to Gulshan

Vibes, a famous beauty clinic based in India, has now come to Gulshan, and is located on level 5 in Pink City. The new centre was inaugurated by Bangladeshi singer Shakila Zafor. Also present for the inauguration ceremony were Mr Ankur Jain, Jt. Managing Director of Vibes, and Aanchal Sharma, Bangladesh Area Head.

Vibes specialises in weight management, beauty and laser treatments for both men and women, and offers a plethora of service, ranging from weight loss to skin and hair removal and much more. With 18 years of experience and thousands of satisfied customers, Vibes is now bringing a higher standard of beauty treatments to Bangladesh. Vibes has outlets in Hyderabad, Bangalore, Kolkata, Siliguri, Chennai and Delhi, and are now proud to be located in Dhaka. For further details or to RSVP, contact Aanchal Sharma, mobile: 01755682062/ 01755682063.

Zeil's Shop Limited opens new outlet

Jasim Md Al-Amin, the managing director and M A Quader, the executive director of Zeil's Shop Limited, inaugurated Zeil's new shoe outlet at Government New Market Dhaka on March 9.

Monirul Morshed, retail sales manager, Mahbubur Rahman, manager accounts, Nazmul Haque Manager, wholesales and other officials of Zeil's Shop Limited were present at the ceremony along with distinguished guests.

The new outlet is offering a 10 percent discount on all Zeil products for the first week. The shop focused on unique styles and designs for men, ladies and children's foot wear.

When Preston comes to town

Popular cooking reality show MasterChef Australia's judge, world famous food critic and food journalist Matt Preston is coming to Bangladesh at the end of this month. He is coming to Bangladesh for the first time, to take part in the "Meet Matt Preston" competition hosted by Bangladesh's most prestigious cookie brand – Rivoli.

Matt Preston is the brand endorser of the international standard and delicious Rivoli Cookies. Unimech Food Factory's Rivoli branded cookies have made a significant impact in the market in a very short time. Rivoli's "Meet Matt Preston" campaign is now running in all the leading super shops in the country and anyone can get the chance to meet Matt Preston and enjoy eating Rivoli cookies

Notice

Star Lifestyle is proud to bring you the opportunity of a lifetime. We are asking our readers and amateur chefs of the country to send in their own unique recipes that would represent Bangladeshi cuisine globally or write a 100 word article on what they like most about Rivoli biscuit.

The three lucky winners who send in the best recipes/write-ups will get the

with the world famous food critic by participating in the campaign.

Matt Preston is not only a judge of MasterChef Australia, but also the restaurant reviewer of world famous "Vogue" magazine. He writes reviews in many renowned Australian food magazines at the same time. Because of his popularity and the confidence he exudes as a food critic, Rivoli chose him as their brand endorser.

The unique taste of Rivoli cookies got Matt Preston interested about South Asia and as a result he is coming to Bangladesh to talk directly to the fans and energise the Rivoli marketing campaign. Needless to say, world class Rivoli cookies are being made in Bangladesh and are available everywhere.

opportunity to meet the legendary Matt Preston, brand ambassador of Rivoli Cookies, judge of MasterChef Australia and renowned restaurant critic on 28th March.

For amateur chefs and food enthusiasts, this is definitely an opportunity like none other so get your cooking hats on! Please send your write-ups by Saturday, March 26; send email to: lifestyleds@yahoo.com

Nipun celebrates Independence Day

Renowned fashion house Nipun takes up the patriotic fervour through their new collection now available at their stores. Primarily designed based on the national bicour, they have offered a wide range of products, suited for fashionable men and women. These attires also feature designs done in embroidery, hand block prints, screen prints, etc.

For details, contact: 01859707410, 8120048

Old Dhaka International School opens to students

Old Dhaka International School is an English medium co-educational school offering a choice between Edexcel and Cambridge curriculum to make children well-rounded and self-dependent individuals.

The school has been constructed on an extensive 4-storied building. All the classrooms are equipped with air-conditioned and digital presentational resources. ODIS wants children to be passionate about learning and are offering resources that will help the student take risks and have life goals.

The school offers various facilities including an individualised approach to learning, highly qualified and renowned teachers, spacious class rooms equipped with digital presentations, well furnished physics, chemistry, computer lab and libraries, career counselling as well as extra curricular activities for the students.

ODIS is open for admission for their July session and is offering a 50 percent discount for the first batch of students. For more information please contact: 01791918868