

Section of journalists seek CJ's help for freeing Shawkat, Mahmudur

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A section of journalists yesterday submitted a memorandum to the office of Chief Justice Surendra Kumar Sinha, seeking his (CJ) interference for the release of senior journalists Shawkat Mahmud and Mahmudur Rahman from jail.

The journalists led by Ruhul Amin Gazi and M Abdullah handed over the memorandum to Mohammad Anisur Rahman, personal secretary of Sinha, for forwarding it to the chief justice.

Citing from the memorandum, they told reporters at the Supreme Court Bar Association premises that Shawkat Mahmud, president of a faction of Bangladesh Federal Union of Journalists (BFUJ), and Mahmudur Rahman, acting editor of the daily Amar Desh, have been shown arrested in cases for several Bangladesh Unemployed Diploma Nurses Association and Bangladesh Basic Graduate Nurses Association started a non-stop sit-in in front of the capital's Jatiya Press Club yesterday, renewing their demands for recruitment in government organisations on the basis of merits and seniority.

NEWS IN brief

Bangladeshi shot dead in SA

UNB, Sylhet

A Bangladeshi national was shot to death by miscreants in Kimberley, capital of Northern Cape province in South Africa on Saturday night.

Deceased Khairul Alam, 38, was from Dhampal village of Golapganj upazila in Sylhet.

The victim's elder brother Sohul Ahmed said a gang of miscreants reportedly attacked his (Khairul's) business establishment at Delpot village of Kimberley around 10:30am local time and opened fire on him, leaving him dead on the spot. Khairul had been living in South Africa for the last five years.

Guard Bangladesh opened fire on him, and claimed that the youth (Sujan) was killed during a clash between two rival groups.

The victim's fellow Ohiduzzaman, who along with 16 others visited the spot following the murder, alleged, "Witnesses said a constable shot Sujan following an order of an assistant superintendent of police (ASI)..."

Another classmate of Sujan alleged police were trying to hinder the proper autopsy and spreading some lies to cover up the murder, adding that they would continue the protest until the cops involved were punished.

MYMENSINGH, JAMALPUR EIGHT WAR CRIME SUSPECTS Submit probe report on May 5: Tribunal

Recording of testimonies, quizzing of two defence witnesses against three Habiganj suspects end

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The International Crimes Tribunal-1 yesterday directed the prosecution to submit an investigation report, if any, on May 5 against eight Mymensingh and Jamalpur men, who were allegedly involved in crimes committed during the 1971 Liberation War.

The accused are Rezaul Haque alias Akkas Moulvi and Badaruzzaman alias Chand Kazi of Muktagachha upazila in Mymensingh and Yunus Ali, his brother AKM Yusuf Alam, Omar Faruk, Nasiruddin alias Kalu, Belayet Hossain and Ismaili Hossain of Jamalpur's Harinakundu upazila.

Rezaul, Yunus, Yusuf and Faruk are in jail while the rest are on the run.

Prosecutor Abul Kalam sought one month's time to submit the report and a two-member tribunal led by Justice Anwarul Haque set the date. Justice Md Shahinur Islam was on leave.

According to the prosecution, the eight were "involved" with Razakar and Al-Badr Bahinies, auxiliary forces of the Pakistan occupation army, and the investigation officer of the case said to have already found their "involvement" in crimes including genocide and murders committed in 1971.

Meanwhile, the tribunal recorded the testimonies and cross-examination of two defence witnesses in the case against three Habiganj men allegedly involved in 1971's crimes.

The court adjourned proceedings until April 7 after the prosecution completed cross-examination of Khorshed Ali and Harun Miah.

The accused Muhibur Rahman Boromia and his brother Mujibur Rahman Angur Mia and Abdur Razzak are facing four charges. They, however, pleaded not guilty.
