

Nancy back on a high note

Popular singer Nancy has lent her voice for a new mixed album titled "Amra Amra - 3." Singing alongside Imran, the song was written by lyricist Snehashish Ghosh and was tuned and composed by Ayon Chakladar. Nancy will be collaborating with Imran after almost 3 years in the track titled "Tumi Kore Bolte Pari?"

Nancy commented that the song is very different in terms of lyrics and composition, and she expects it to be a nice prelude to her upcoming solo album "Bhalobashbo Bolei," which is scheduled to be released very soon. She is also expected to be mother to her third child in a couple of weeks.

SHAKIB-JOYA back on screen

On account of the upcoming Bengali New Year, Shafi Uddin Shafi's "Purnodoirgho Premkahini 2" just hit the big screens yesterday, and fans are lining up at the box offices. Lead by one of the most popular Bangladeshi actors of all time, the self-proclaimed "Number 1," Shakib Khan and the ever-beautiful Joya Ahsan, the movie was penned by Rumman Rashid Khan. Joya plays the role of a model while Shakib will grace a cricketer's role.

Majority of the filming took place in Hyderabad, India's Ramuji Film City. The leading artists will be supported by the likes of Emon, Moushumi Hamid, Shahidul Islam Sacchu and others. Singer Asif Akbar and cricketer Habibul Bashar will make their on-screen debuts in this film as well.

London Bengali Film Festival ready to kick off

Screening three Bangladeshi films, the London Bengali Film Festival (LBFF) is going to kick off on April 14 in London amidst the festivities of the Bengali New Year that's coming up. LBFF is an annual celebration of films from or about the Bengali diaspora. It is also regarded as the largest Bengali film festivals in the world.

A total of six films have been selected for the first London Bengali Film Festival. The three day festival includes "Sutopar Thikana" by Proshoon Rahman, "Udhao" by Amit Ashraf and the much debated "Brihonnola" by Murad Parvez from Bangladesh. Productions from India like 'Ek Phaali Rodh' by Atanu Ghosh and "Family Album" by Mainak Bhaumik will also be showcased at the festival. "Mainstream films have a global audience, but global stories also need to be seen by the mainstream audience. The London Bengali Film Festival does exactly that," says Munsur Ali, founder and CEO of LBFF.

Stars are full of praises for KONA

As soon as Kona's new single "Reshmi Churi's" music video hit YouTube, it has gone viral over the social networks. The stars of the entertainment industry are also full of praises for her talented voice and dance moves. Many have shared the video and let the people know of their thoughts on it, including many congratulatory notes for Kona.

Actress Suborna Mustafa has said that "It is a brilliant portrayal and 'Dhimitana' shall remain as my favourite. Popular actress of recent times, Mahiya Mahi, also shared the video praising her dance skills and saying that "She can do everything!" Singer Ankhi Alamgir also wrote "Congratulations Kona! It's a mesmerising performance and I wish you well for the future."

The video was inaugurated on her Facebook profile on account of the upcoming Bengali New Year. The song was written, composed and tuned by Akash Sen. Producer and choreographer of the video was Shivraam Sharma.

