

Sanam Puri's band collaborates with Maldivan singer

Indian band Sanam announced that their new single's music video filming will take place in the Maldives, featuring famed local singer, Mira Mohamed Majid. Currently in Addu Atoll on an invitation of Vice President Ahmed Adeb to hold a performance at Feydhoo Island, the band made the announcement on their official Facebook page, stating that preparations for the song are currently underway.

Sanam and his fellow musicians are now on a visit to Herathera Island Resort in Addu Atoll, the location chosen for their new music video shoot. The band's first performance in the Maldives was in capital Male at the 50th Anniversary of Independence of the Republic of Maldives, during which Mira performed a few songs with lead singer Sanam Puri. She had spent a short time in India with the band prior to the show, preparing and practising for the performances.

'DANGAL' IS A STORY WORTH TELLING: Ranveer Singh

Bollywood actor Ranveer Singh says he is keen to watch superstar Aamir Khan's upcoming sports biopic "Dangal" as it chronicles a story worth telling. The film, directed by Nitesh Tiwari, stars Aamir in the role of Mahavir Singh Phogat, who taught wrestling to his daughters Babita Kumari and Geeta Phogat.

Ranveer was interacting with Aamir during a session on the sidelines of Lokmat's "Maharashtrian of the Year" award and said nobody is prepared for what is coming with "Dangal". The 30-year-old "Bajirao Mastani" actor was all praise for Aamir and said he hopes to be like the "3 Idiots" star someday.

He also added, "Taare Zameen Par' changed my life. I happened to see that film with my father and our relationship changed after that shared experience. I was in a similar situation. I was from a business family, not wanting to follow the business and instead wanting to be an artist and that really went a long way."

SHAH RUKH TAUGHT ME TO BE HUMBLE: Waluscha De Sousa

Model-turned-actress Waluscha De Sousa is making her Bollywood debut opposite Shah Rukh Khan in "Fan" and she says besides acting the superstar taught her the art of not letting the idea of success take over. The actress said she has become a bigger fan of him after working in the film.

"I have become a bigger fan of Shah

Rukh after working with him. Passion and hard work goes hand in hand. What I learnt from him is no matter how far life takes you, at the end of the day you need to be humble," Waluscha said.

Produced by Yash Raj Films, the movie will see Shah Rukh in a double role - one as a superstar and other his look-alike fan Gaurav and is set for release on April 15.
