STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) leader yesterday hurled abuses and assaulted a journalist at Modhur Canteen in Dhaka University (DU) yesterday.

Both are students of the Department of Mass Communication and Journalism, the victim in his final year and the attacker having completed sitting for his master's exam.

Tapon Kanti Roy, DU correspondent of bdnews24.com, told The Daily Star that he was taking tea around 3:00pm when BCL central committee Assistant Secretary Peal Hasan arrived and accused him of being disrespectful.

"When I wanted to know the reason, he became angry and slapped and punched me," he said, claiming that students

8 held by ACC in graft cases

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Anti Corruption Commission yesterday arrested eight people in the country in various graft cases.

Former superintendent engineer of Wasa JM Rabiul Kawser was held in a case filed with Mirpur Model police in 2014 over swindling of nearly Tk 14 lakh, said ACC sources.

Meanwhile, ACC approved suing Rafiqul Islam, former additional director general of the Department of Immigration and Passport, for possessing undisclosed wealth worth Tk 1,68,44,000.

Jahangir Alam, a physician, was held as he used to give fake professional certificates to others.

Razu Ahmed, former cashier of Progressive Life Insurance, was arrested in a case filed with Mirpur Model police in 2014 over misappropriating Tk 17.7 lakh of policy holders.

Sacked office secretary of Ansar VDP Development Bank Delwar Hossain Shahin was held for misappropriating Tk 14.6 lakh.

The four were arrested in Dhaka.

Besides, Al Mahmud of Brahmanbaria Palli Bidyut Samity was held over embezzling Tk 5.74 lakh of consumers in Comilla, one Nurul Amin for cheating people and grabbing their wealth in Tangail, sacked manager of Burail Nandigram Branch of Grameen Bank Babul Aktar over siphoning Tk 6.5 lakh in Bogra and land broker Ashraf Rizvi over pocketing Tk 2.95 lakh in Dinajpur.

The Rapid Action Battalion has detained 10 people on suspicion of their involvement in a robbery at an ATM booth in Gazipur more than one and a half months earlier.

More than Tk 9 lakh and two knives used in committing the crime have been recovered from their possession.

The detainees identified as Habib alias Rubel, Shahadat, Ismail, Shahidul Islam, Farid, Delwar, Ibrahim, Nazrul Islam, Alamgir Hossain and Hasan Mir have confessed to the robbery, Rab officials told The Daily Star.

Tipped off, a team of Rab-1 detained Habib, Shahadat and Ismail at Joydevpur around 11:00pm on Tuesday and Shahidul at Shalna in Gazipur later that night.

Based on the information extracted from them, law enforcers nabbed the other six in the capital's Uttara early yesterday, said Lt Col Tuhin Mohammad Muttar, commanding officer of Rab-1.

Hefajat leader Harun sent to Ctg jail in violence case

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

A Chittagong court yesterday sent Hefajat-e Islam central leader Mufti Harun Bin Izhar to jail after police produced him before it in a violence case seeking a 10-day remand for him.

The court fixed today for hearing the remand prayer, said Additional Deputy Commissioner (Prosecution) Kazi Mutaki Ibnu Minan.

The case was filed with Kotwali Police Station over attacking police and panicking people by exploding cocktails in the city's Kazir Dewri during a meeting of BNP-led 20-party alliance in May, 2012.

Mufti Harun was shown arrested in the case as he was arrested in front of Chittagong jail gate immediately after his release on bail in four other violence cases.

First ever ICT career camp starts Saturday

BSS, Dhaka

The government is going to launch first ever ICT Career Camp at different public and private universities and colleges across the country to motivate students to build career in IT, said official sources.

They said the grand opening of the ICT Career Camp to be organised by the World Bank financed Leveraging ICT for Growth, Employment and Governance (LICT) Project of Bangladesh Computer Council (BCC) under ICT Division will be held at the Krishibid Institution in the capital on Saturday.

State Minister for ICT Zunaid Ahmed Palak will inaugurate the camp. Similar camps will be organised at the selected educational institutions within one year.

"We are launching the career camp in the educational institutions to show the career path in IT for the students," said Zunaid Ahmed Palak.
