OUR CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet

Five miscreants desecrated an idol of Bhairabatala Temple at Chalibandar in Sylhet on Wednesday evening, three days after Finance Minister AMA Muhith inaugurated the construction work of the temple's five-storey building.

The miscreants entered the temple around 8:00pm and hearing the temple priest's shout, people rushed to the spot and captured one of them, said locals.

He was identified as Khalil Ahmed of Charpar, said Sohel Ahmed, officer-in-charge of Sylhet Kotwali Police Station. "Locals handed him over to police," he added.

Meanwhile, Sylhet Puja Udjapan Parishad and Bhairabatala Temple Committee yesterday formed a human chain in front of the temple, demanding that the government should impose strict rules to stop these kinds of activities.

Inter-Parliamentary Union (IPU) President Saber Hossain Chowdhury in a meeting with Romanian President Klaus Werner Iohannis at Cotroceni Palace, Bucharest on Wednesday. Other than committing to deeper engagement and cooperation between the Romanian parliament and the IPU, the two underscored the increasing importance of parliamentary diplomacy in responding to global challenges as well as the role of parliaments in implementing Agenda 2030.
