Visa deal only once

The EU's top diplomat Federica Mogherini said yesterday that Turkey would only get visa-free travel to the bloc once it

European Union's passport free Schengen zone without a visa

by June, in exchange for it taking back migrants from Europe.

before allowing visa-free travel, of which it is believed to are respected, as for all countries with which we negotiate free travel for a limited period," EU foreign policy chief it is a discussion we are having with Kosovo. There are very strict, technical criteria that must be put in place, a very severe

The EU struck the deal with Turkey to send back all "irregular" migrants which arrive in Greece after March 20 in a bid to halt mass migration which has created enormous strain in Europe. Two sets of deportations expelling 325 migrants from Greece took place three weeks ago, but there has been applications and Turkey has also sounded the alarm several times against the EU failing to keep its side of the bargain.

The operation has been hampered by last minute asylum

The accord is awash with legal and moral concerns, and critics have accused the EU of sacrificing its values and overlooking Turkey's growing crackdown on free speech in order verification must be carried out to apply this measure."

Turkey has demanded its citizens be allowed to enter the

But the EU insists that Turkey must meet 72 conditions

"On free travel, this will be done only once all the criteria

"It was the case with Georgia, it was the case with Ukraine,

'all criteria met'

EU top diplomat tells Turkey has met all the required criteria.

Mogherini said on France Interradio.

have fulfilled about half.

AFP, Paris

NEWS_{IN} brief

UK junior doctors stage all-out strike

AFP, London

Junior doctors in England yesterday started their first ever all-out strike in a bitter, deadlocked row with Prime Minister David Cameron's government over pay and conditions. The strike will have a major impact on the National Health Service (NHS), which employs more than 50,000 junior doctors. An Ipsos Mori poll for BBC News found that 57 percent of the general public supported the doctors.

Chile reburies poet Pablo Neruda

Chile reburied Nobel prize-winning poet Pablo

AFP, Isla Negra

Neruda's remains yesterday after exhuming them to determine whether he was assassinated by late dictator Augusto Pinochet's regime. Neruda, a celebrated poet, politician, diplomat and bohemian, died in 1973 aged 69, just days after Pinochet overthrew Socialist president Salvador Allende in a bloody coup. An international team of specialists who examined the remains are due to release their findings in May.

Support for Brexit camp grows

AFP, London

British support for staying in the European Union has fallen by two percentage points to 51 percent according to a poll, a decline that may suggest US President Barack Obama's words in favour of UK membership had yet to have an impact. Support for leaving the 28-member bloc in a referendum has increased by 2 percentage points to 43 percent in the past week.

Sushma Swaraj stable: doctors

IANS, New Delhi

The condition of Indian External Affairs Minister Sushma Swaraj, who was admitted to the All India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS) on Monday night with fever and chest congestion, was stable yesterday, the hospital said. "She is under treatment for fever, chest congestion with features of pneumonia," an AIIMS statement said.

Paternity test for Bolivia president!

AFP, La Paz

Following a court order, Bolivian President Evo Morales underwent a paternity test Monday to settle a dispute with an exgirlfriend whose child he denies fathering, his lawyer said. Morales had claimed he fathered a child with his ex-partner Gabriela Zapata which later died, before changing his story to say the child never existed.

A woman lays flowers at a memorial, dedicated to firefighters and workers who died after the Chernobyl nuclear disaster, during a night service in the city of Slavutych, Ukraine, yesterday. Ukraine marks 30 years since the world's worst nuclear accident at Chernobyl that killed thousands and forced a global rethink about the wisdom of relying on atomic fuel. PHOTO: REUTERS no movement since.

to secure the deal.

AFP, Washington

Voters cast ballots in five northeastern states yesterday, with frontrunners Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump both looking to overwhelm their respective Democratic and Republican rivals in the race for the White Connecticut and one hour later in the other House.

A very strong showing in primaries in Connecticut, Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania and Rhode Island would Clinton on the cusp of Democratic victory, a monumental step in her quest to become the nation's first female commander in chief.

Trump also was expected to extend his formidable lead in the bruising race for the Republican nomination, even as rivals Ted Cruz and John Kasich mounted a hasty, and already fraying tag team effort to try to block him. Kasich agreed to forego campaigning in Indiana, a winner-take-all state that votes May 3, and Cruz will return the favour later

Kasich 138 (need 2,384 (need 1,237 to win) to win)

REPUBLICANS

Trump 845

Cruz 559

DELEGATE TRACKER

DEMOCRATS

Clinton 1944

Sanders 1192

in New Mexico and Oregon.

But within hours of the surprise deal, the Ohio governor was already playing it down, saying he was not telling his supporters in Indiana not to vote for Cruz. Yesterday's voting began at 6:00 am in states. Polls across all five states close at 8:00

Clinton was favoured to win all five state Democratic contests, with polls giving her a double-digit lead over rival Bernie Sanders i n Pennsylvania, the biggest state of the bunch with 189 delegates.

According to a recent CBS poll, Trump leads Indiana with 40 percent of likely Republican voters, compared to 35

US sends F-22

Two of the world's most advanced warplanes have touched down in Romania

for the first time, near the shores of the Black Sea and just a short hop from

Ukraine, the Crimean

the F-22 Raptors to southeastern Europe two weeks after Russian fighter jets buzzed an American war-

Officially it was for a

Nato training exercise, part of the Rapid Response program showcasing how effectively and quickly US fighter jets, crews and support can be moved to a forward operstrength for Nato allies on the Black Sea, where Russia is rapidly building up its speed and stealth -- able to travel at twice the speed of sound and hard to spot on

The planes landed at

Mihail Kogalniceanu

Airport near the Romanian

Lakenheath in Eastern

England is strategically significant for NATO and

Constanta is on the Black

The transfer from RAF

The F-22s are known for military hardware.

city of Constanta.

But it was also a show of ating base.

radar.

The United States sent

Peninsula and Russia.

ship in the Baltic Sea.

warplanes

CNN ONLINE

to Black Sea

percent for Cruz and 20 percent for Kasich. A Trump loss in Indiana would make it much harder for him to gain the 1,237 delegates needed to win the nomination in the first round of balloting at the party's convention in Cleveland July 18-21.

Violence surges as talks tatters Five more US states vote Aleppo death toll mounts; US to deploy rocket launchers in Turkey

ernment and by rebels, 19 people were killed by rebel shell

REUTERS, Beirut

The Syrian government yesterday said it had held a final session of talks with the United Nations mediator in a "useful and constructive round", but diplomats warned that an escalation of fighting around

Aleppo threatened the shaky peace process. UN Special Envoy Staffan de Mistura is struggling to keep negotiations alive after the main opposition High Negotiations Committee (HNC) left formal talks last week due to a surge in violence and stalled aid convoys, despite a two-month truce. Fighting has intensified in Aleppo province in recent weeks Syrians help a wounded in Aleppo, yesterday. as the partial truce brokered by the United States and Russia has all but broken down.

De Mistura, who will brief the UN Security Council today, is expected to appeal to major powers to convene urgently a ministerial meeting of the International Syria Support Group (ISSG), diplomats said.

Attacks by government forces and rebels killed at least 30 people, including eight children, in the last 24 hours in Aleppo, a monitoring group said.

In Aleppo, divided between areas controlled by the gov-

That adds to another 60 people killed over the weekend in Aleppo, Syria's largest city before the war, according to Observatory for Human Rights said.

the Observatory. Air strikes were also reported in rebel-held areas

ing and 11 were killed by government air strikes, the Syrian province yesterday. In a separate incident west of Aleppo, five Civil Defence workers - first responders in opposition-held territory where medical infrastructure has all but broken down - were killed by air strikes near Damascus and in Hama

Each side accuses the other of targeting civilian areas in the fiveyear-old war that has killed more and a rocket attack on their centre.

than 250,000 people.

Meanwhile, Turkey's foreign minister yesterday said the the United States will deploy a rocket launcher system in Turkey near the border with a part of Syria held by Islamic Mevlut Cavusoglu was quoted by the Haberturk newspaper as saying that the High Mobility Artillery Rocket System (HIMARS) would arrive in May near a part of southeastern Turkey that has repeatedly been hit by rocket fire from Syria.

You can't be in denial about terrorism

India tells Pakistan as top diplomats meet after months-long hiatus

THE TIMES OF INDIA ONLINE

India's foreign secretary S Jaishankar flatly told Pakistan yesterday that it can't be in denial about terrorism and terrorist groups in Pakistan targeting India.

He also said Pakistan can't be in denial about the impact of terrorism on relations between the two countries. "Terrorist groups based in Pakistan targeting India must not be allowed to operate with impunity," Jaishankar said.

Jaishankar also told Pakistan's foreign secretary Aizaz Ahmad Chaudhry in a 90-minute meeting that India wants early and visible progress in the Pathankot terror attack inves-

The two met on the sidelines of the annual Heart of Asia conference. Pakistan didn't mention the Pathankot terror attack once, but Chaudhry managed to tell India about his concern over Indian intelligence agency RAW's alleged involvement in Balochistan and also about Kashmir remaining the core issue for his country, according to a Pakistan High Commission statement.

"India's FS (foreign secretary) emphasised the need for early and visible progress on the Pathankot terrorist attack investigation as well as the Mumbai case trial in Pakistan," Indian foreign ministry spokesman Vikas Swarup said.

Sources told TOI that Jaishankar told Chaudhry that no spy agency will put their agent in the field with their own passport and without a visa.

Turkish policemen (L) disperse demonstrators during a protest of pro-secular Turks outside the Parliament in Ankara yesterday. The protest followed Turkey parliament's speaker's call to drop secularism from the country's new charter. But the head of parliament's constitution commission said no discussions were under way to remove secularism from the constitution. PHOTO: REUTERS

India makes panic key button from the start of next year, an official said yesterday, as the country grapples with large numbers of sex crimes against women.

The button would allow users to call emergency services by pressing a single key on their phone, a telecommunications ministry official told AFP. "No cell phones can be sold without the provision for panic button from January 1, 2017," he said, requesting anonymity.

The ministry said it was also making inbuilt GPS compulsory from January 1, 2018.

The latest official figures show 36,735 rapes were reported across the country in 2014, although activists say the actual number is likely much higher with many crimes going unreported due to the social stigma they attract.

BJP targets Sonia Gandhi | Canadian beheaded in VVIP chopper scam

AGENCIES

BJP yesterday used the conviction of Italian officials linked to the VVIP chopper scam to target Congress chief Sonia Gandhi and asked the then defence minister A K Antony Please come out clean," he said. to name the party leaders allegedly were the bribe-takers after those who gave the bribe were convicted by an Italian court. BJP national secretary Shrikant Sharma said Congress chief Sonia Gandhi should come out with a clarification over the alleged mention of her name in the Italian court's order.

"Her government was the champion of corruption. She must issue a clarification over the mention of her name by the court," he said. Addressing a press conference, Union minister Ravi Shankar Prasad said Antony had in March 2013 said corruption had taken places in the purchase of VVIP chop-

"Bribe-givers have been convicted. Why are bribe-takers silent? Antony should answer if leaders of Congress are involved in it or not. Are they from your party or not?

> He said the treasury benches will use the issue to attack Congress in Parliament. The chopper scam is not an isolated case of graft and "corruption is the byword of UPA-I and UPA-II".

Prasad said yesterday's attack on Congress was only the "first chapter" as top BJP leaders, including its chief Amit Shah and Union ministers Arun Jaitley and Venkaiah Naidu, huddled together to mull over their next move. Quoting from the Italian court's order Prasad said, "There was reasonable belief that corruption had taken place and it was validly proven that 10-15 million dollars made way to Indian officials".

Prasad accused the UPA government of

in Philippines

PM Trudeau expresses outrage

AFP, Manila

Islamic militants in the Philippines have beheaded a Canadian hostage, raising fears for more than 20 other foreigners held captive on remote islands, with troops and police vowing yesterday to hunt down the extremists. The man's head was found Monday dumped outside city hall on Jolo, a mountainous and jungle-clad island in the far south of the Philippines that is a stronghold of the Abu Sayyaf Islamist loose network of militants.

Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau and Filipino authorities identified the victim as John Ridsdel, a retiree in his late 60s who was kidnapped seven months ago from aboard a yacht, along with another Canadian man, a Norwegian and a Filipina woman. "This was an act of cold-blooded murder and responsibility rests with the terrorist group who took him hostage," Trudeau said in Ottawa. The four were abducted at a marina near the major city of Davao as part of a wave of abductions by the Abu Sayyaf -- a its allies, because Sea, close to the Ukrainian exercises in the area while saying it will spend $2.4 billion to upgrade its naval capacity.

Russia has complained that it is Nato, and not Russia, that is responsible for the escalating tensions by pushing up against Russian borders.

a must for all mobiles involved in the scandal. The party wanted to know who AFP, New Delhi All mobile phones sold in India will have to have a panic pers and that bribe had been taken. He stalling the CBI probe into the chopper scam.

asked Antony to come clean on it.