

Kishore Das is one of the most featured young musicians and composers of the present times. The Young musician is basically famous for his exceptional style of singing. Recently, he has worked on his first duet album 'Tumi ar Ami' with famous singer Elita Karim. Soon the music enthusiasts will be able to delve into the beats of his latest romantic melo-rock songs. This week, Star Weekend has a quick chat with him about his musical inspiration, latest work and much more.

What was the first song that you have ever composed?

Jachho duure, jao tumi baadha debona'.

Who is your biggest musical inspiration?

Kumar Bishwajit

Your top three favourite singers from Bangladesh- Okay, but this is really a very tough question for a singer to answer. If I have to mention three here, I will say 1) Kumar Bishwajit 2) Samina Chowdhury and 3) Bappa Majumder.

Your latest work-

My first duet album 'Tumi ar Ami' with Elita Karim. The album is waiting to be released very soon by the banner of CMV. It is basically designed with some romantic melo-rock songs. The lyricists are- Kabir Bakul and Showmeshwar Oli.

What do you love to do besides music-

Passing time with friends and travelling.

What is your advice to young aspiring musicians?

One should always try to bring out the best in themselves.
