Man, son held over Prof Rezaul killing

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Rajshahi

Two more persons were detained in Sreepur village of Bagmara upazila in Rajshahi early yesterday over the murder of Rajshahi University Prof AFM Rezaul Karim Siddiquee.

They are Abdul Hakim, 63, a retired teacher of Bagmara Pilot High School and his son Ariful Islam, a first year student of Bagmara College, said police.

Earlier on April 26, two persons were arrested in Dargamaria and Khajapara villages.

Prof Rezaul was hacked to death in the city's Shalbagan area on April 23.

Meanwhile, although a fragile law and order situation has been prevailing in Rajshahi city over the week, Rajshahi Metropolitan Police yesterday urged the city dwellers not to be afraid. "Rather come up with bravery and intelligence to cooperate with the police in investigation," RMP Commissioner Muhammad Shamsuddin told a press briefing at his conference room.

From April 22 to April 28, murders of a couple at Hotel Nice International, Awami League leader Ziaul Haque Tuku and Prof Rezaul took place in Rajshahi. A robbery was also committed during the period.

Police are prioritising the RU teacher murder case and gathered details about the killers, he said.

Smoke still billowing from Sundarbans

UNB, Bagerhat

Smoke was still billowing around the burnt out area yesterday, three days into the forest fire that broke out in Tultala area of Chandpai range of the Sundarbans in Sarankhola upazila.

Firefighters along with forest officials were found spraying water to stop the smoke in the area yesterday morning, though the Forest Department (FD) claimed that it has been completely extinguished.

Conservator of Forests (Khulna circle) Mohammad Zahir Uddin Ahmed said the fire was extinguished after hours of hectic efforts by the firefighters, forest officials and

Mymensingh AL council today

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Mymensingh

A council of Mymensingh district and town units of Awami League will be held on the Circuit House ground in the town today.

The event is being held after over a decade although it was supposed to be held every three years. The last one was held in 2003, said Hossain Jahangir Babu, office secretary of the district unit of AL.

Syed Ashraful Islam, general secretary of AL central committee and also minister for public administration, is due to attend the conference as the chief guest, which will be presided over by Principal Motiur Rahman, president of district AL, also minister for Religious Affairs.

Abdul Matin Sarkar, secretary of the party's district unit said different political instabilities caused the delay in holding the council.

AL men 'beat up' project officer over bridge construction

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Mymensingh

Md Zakir Hossain, project implementation officer of Phulpur upazila in Mymensingh, escaped to the capital yesterday allegedly to save his life from the pro-government leaders, who beat him up on Thursday afternoon in his office over a construction project there.

"I feel very insecure, there might be further attacks," alleged Zakir, adding, "I still feel pain on the right side of my chest and neck."

Habibur Rahman Habib, upazila vice-chairman and joint convener of Awami League (AL) Phulpur upazila unit, allegedly was locked in an altercation with him over the construction work of a Tk 30 lakh 40-feet bridge project on Kandapara Canal at Singherwar union in the upazila around 5:00pm, Zakir alleged.

"I informed Habib that some contractors and I had visited the spot on Tuesday and as the canal is full of water, the construction work can not be completed within the one-month stipulated time," he said.

"I also told him that upazila project implementation body did not allow starting the work because of the condition...The project might be shifted to another place of the union but Habib repeatedly pressed to start the work here, which led to an altercation," he alleged.

At one stage, Habib hurled abuse and punched him several times before leaving," alleged Zakir.

After a while, Habib's younger brother Mahbubur Rahman, secretary of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) Phulpur upazila unit, along with his accomplices came by and beat him up, Zakir alleged, adding, when office
