the recent killings as "planned murders", warning there was no room for terrorism in the country. "...no terrorist would be allowed to use Bangladesh's soil...we want to establish Bangladesh as a peaceful nation, she said. Earlier, she distributed laptops and projectors among 100 primary and 14 secondary schools under Kotalipara upazila. Hasina said the BNP-Jamaat nexus was now killing imams of mosques, priests of temples, fathers of churches and teachers of universities alongside common people to destabilise the country. "They have recently killed a cousin of Dipu Moni, our former foreign minister. What crimes did he do for which he was killed...was it his offence that he was a cousin of Dipu Moni?" she asked. She urged imams and guardians to convince those engaged in wrongdoings to realise that Islam does not like killings. "Islam is a religion of peace and tolerance. Our great Prophet (PBUH) could not like excesses in the name of religion...he also used to advise not to hurt religious senti ments," she said. Hasina also vowed to bring to justice those who conspired both at home and abroad to abduct and kill her son

Sajib Wazed Joy in the USA, reports UNB. "The conspiracy has been proved in a US court," she said. Referring to a US court judgement, Hasina said an FB official and a BNP leader have been sentenced to jail for their involvement in hatching a plot to abduct and kill Joy, also the prime minister's ICT affairs adviser. Plots being hatched by the BNP-Jamaat clique are unlikely to stop unless the conspirators are brought to justice, Hasina said.

She accused BNP-Jamaat of creating Bangla Bhai and unleashing terrorism and militancy, saying terrorism and militancy can never bring peace.
