STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Bangladesh Youth Leadership Center (BYLC), country's first leadership institute, has started the admission process for its fourth international Youth Leadership Summit at a press conference at Jatiya Press Club yesterday.

The Summit will be held on August 18-20 at the capital's International Convention City, Bashundhara, bringing together 500 national and international young delegates, as well as 50 nationally and internationally renowned speakers.

University students and young professionals, interested in public service, can visit www.bylc.org/summit2016 to submit their online applications by June 10.

Ejaz Ahmad, founder and president of BYLC said, "The goal is to bring together youth with differing viewpoints and ideologies and instill values of inclusive and compassionate leadership in them."

"We want to help young people to discover their inherent leadership potential, and inspire them to proactively work for the public good," said Akhter Matin Chaudhury, BYLC chairperson.

UKaid is the title sponsor of the summit, which will feature a mix of plenaries and concurrent panels on issues ranging from identities and values to education, entrepreneurship, and social innovation.

This year's keynote speakers will include Harvard Prof Dean Williams and Prime Minister's International Affairs Advisor Gowher Rizvi.

PROF REZAUL KILLING

University teachers meet home boss

Demand exemplary punishment for killers
DU CORRESPONDENT

Leaders of the Federation of Bangladesh University Teachers' Association (FBUTA) yesterday met with Home Minister Asaduzzaman Khan Kamal demanding a fair probe into the murder of Rajshahi University's Prof AFM Rezaul Karim Siddiquee and exemplary punishment for the killers.

They also demanded completion of the trials of all previous murders of teachers and free thinkers and security for people.

A six-member FBUTA team led by its President Farid Uddin Ahmed also submitted a memorandum to the minister at his secretariat office, calling upon government officials to make remarks to media carefully.

"We requested them to avoid the remarks which encourage militancy and terrorism and undermine public confidence," said the memorandum.

Cautioning the minister against US interference, the statement said, "The USA wants to interfere in domestic affairs of the country in the name of helping in the investigation into recent murders."

Meanwhile, students of Rajshahi University yesterday continued their demonstration on the campus for the 13th consecutive day, demanding justice for the murder.

Students of English department held a procession a rally on the campus.

They said their protest would continue until the killers were brought to book and vowed to continue their movement during the summer break, which would start tomorrow.

FBUTA claimed that the law enforcement agencies had failed to solve the recent murders and lacked proper strategies to prevent those. "We believed that brutal killings by militants would be resisted through fair and immediate trials of the killers," the memorandum said.

Maksud Kamal, secretary general of FBUTA, told The Daily Star that during the hour-long meeting, the minister assured the teachers of the trial of the murder and wanted suggestions to prevent such killings.

"When questioned that the government neither expressed solidarity with the RU teachers nor expressed condolence to Rezaul's family, the home minister told us that he would visit Rajshahi on May 14 to discuss with RU teachers and citizens to avert militancy," he added.

Unidentified assailants hacked Prof Rezaul to death on April 23, and this killing took the total number of university teachers murdered in a decade to four.

FBUTA claimed that all the murders occurred in the same way.

3 JMB suspects placed on remand in Ctg

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

A Chittagong court yesterday granted a two-day remand for each of the three suspected activists of banned militant outfit Jama'atul Mujahideen Bangladesh (JMB) in a case filed with Hathazari police after they were produced before the court.

The court of Senior Judicial Magistrate Hossain Reza passed the order, said Court Inspector AHM Moshir Rahman.

The three suspects are Naimur Rahman Nayan, Faisal Mahmud and Shawkat Russell, all students of physics department of Chittagong University.
