A century-old tree in the middle of a road in Tigerpass area of Chittagong city, was cut down around midnight yesterday by the order of the Chittagong City Corporation. When the railway employees, claiming that the tree belonged to them as the area was under their jurisdiction, protested the move, the CCC workers just abandoned the branches and logs there, and left. CCC planner AKM Rezaul Karim retorted they cut the tree as a precaution for the upcoming storms, and questioned how the tree could belong to the railway department while the street belongs to the city corporation. The railway employees however finally took it upon themselves to clean the road, and took the logs into their custody.

Barisal city sees mobile court drive against errant shops

Most of those shut down in advance to avoid scrutiny

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Barisal

Barisal district administration, BSTI and environment office jointly operated a mobile court drive in Port Road, Bazar Road, Fal Patti and Launch Kheyaghat area of the city yesterday for ensuring consumer rights and safe environment.

During the drive, the court ordered some butcher shops encroaching upon Kirton Khola river bank to shift within five hours, otherwise they will be demolished.

Afterwards, it also went to the Bazar Road area to motivate business owners to keep the prices under control during the month of Ramadan, said Dr Gazi Mohammad Saifuzzaman, deputy commissioner of Barisal, who led the drive. "Three shops were fined Tk 22,000 for using banned polythene," said Sukhamoy Sarkar, executive magistrate. Such drives will be conducted regularly, said the DC. Sensing the drive, most of the owners closed their shops.

AUST teacher admits to sexually harassing female students

COURT CORRESPONDENT

Mahfuzur Rashid Ferdous, a teacher of the Ahsanullah University of Science and Technology (AUST), yesterday confessed to sexually harassing some of his female students before a magistrate. Metropolitan Magistrate Kazi Kamrul Islam recorded his confessional statement, said a court source. Ferdous was placed on a two-day remand on Wednesday in a case filed over sexual harassment and taking of compromising photos of the students with an intention of blackmailing. Following the case filed by an AUST alumnus, Kalabagan police arrested him the same day. Ferdous, an associate professor of electrical engineering also the assistant proctor, was suspended by AUST after days of protests against him.

Unrealised electricity bills stand at Tk 4,750cr

Show documents

UNB, Dhaka

Despite repeated directives by the Power Division, there is hardly any progress in realising the unpaid bills from customers by different power distribution companies, particularly those in the public sector.

The unrealised bills of government, semi-government and private organisations stand at Tk 4,750 crore until January 2016, show official documents.

None of the five power distribution entities -- PDB, REB, DPDC, DESCO and WZPDC -- have been successful in achieving their targets in realising the bills.

According to the documents obtained by the news agency, the Power Development Board (PDB) is on top of the list of companies failing to realise outstanding bills from consumers, both in public and private sectors.

The documents, prepared by the Power Cell, a technical wing of the Power Division, showed that PDB had failed to realise Tk 1,612.24 crore in outstanding bills from its customers against its sales of electricity until January 2016.

PDB is followed by Rural Electrification Board (REB), with which pending bills now stand at Tk 1,559.25 crore. Dhaka Power Distribution Company (DPDC), which operates distribution networks in the capital's central and southern part, has yet to realise bills of Tk 881.90 crore. The unrealised bills of Dhaka Electricity Supply Company Ltd (DESCO), which operates in the capital's western and northern parts, now stand at Tk 420.98 crore. The West Zone Power Distribution Company Ltd (WZPDC), a relatively new power distribution entity created by the government for the country's south-western region, including Khulna division, has also been lagging behind in realising its pending bills from customers. The documents revealed that WZPDC's unrealised bills with customers are Tk 315.69 crore. Director General of Power Cell Mohammad Hossain said the overall pending bills of different agencies with their private and individual customers were decreasing, but the progress was slow in the public sector companies. He said different public offices and institutions like city corporations, hospitals,
