

WAR CRIMES TRIAL Court seeks report on Satkhira Jamaat ameer

STAFF CORRESPONDENT The International Crimes Tribunal-1 yesterday directed the prosecution to submit investigation report, if any, on July 25 over the alleged involvement of Abdul Khaleq Mandol, the ameer of Satkhira Jamaat-e-Islami, in crimes against humanity committed during the 1971 Liberation War. The tribunal fixed the date after Prosecutor Zead Al Malum sought three months to submit the report. Earlier in the day, he submitted a progress report on. Meanwhile, the tribunal allowed the investigation agency to interrogate him at a safe home. The agency was allowed to interrogate the alleged Razakar for one day on May 12. Investigation against arrested Khaleq started on June 16 last year that had already 'found evidence' of his "involvement" in murder and rape in 1971.

A very rare commendable case. The owners -- Advocate Syed Mohsin Ahmed and Syed Sajidur Rahman -- of the three-storey building, inset, take the responsibility to demolish it on their own, as the city corporation earlier identified 32 buildings, in Shahi Eidgah area of Sylhet city, including this one as extremely vulnerable to earthquakes.

Veteran journo Madan Shahu passes away

FROM PAGE 3 respiratory complications worsened Wednesday, prompting his admission to a private hospital in Old Dhaka. On advice of the doctors there, he was taken to Birdem the next day, where he had been on life support for three days. "The compounding of Asthma and a cardiac arrest led to the death," said his son Aungshuman Shahu, as his father's body was brought to The Daily Star for his colleagues to pay respect. Madan Shahu left behind his wife Maloti Shahu, daughter Sushmita and two sons Anirban, Aungshuman. He was 77. Colleagues fondly recalled his memories. "When I talked to Madan Da around 7:00pm Tuesday, he said he was sick and so did not inform me because we would feel bad then. He also said he would see me on Saturday to talk about the biography," said Asma. Born to Mahadev Shahu and Kaileshwary Shahu in Sirajganj town on April 30, 1939, Madan Shahu grew up and completed his secondary and higher secondary education there. In the 1960s, he joined the then Pakistan Observer (it later became Bangladesh Observer) as a reader and worked there until 1991 as senior news reader. In early 1991, he joined The Daily Star as an assistant editor and climbed up to become the supplement editor before retiring in 2014.

Technical, vocational

FROM PAGE 3 up, he said. Qimiao Fan, World Bank country director for Bangladesh, said, "A more skilled workforce is crucial for Bangladesh to realise its aspiration of becoming an upper-middle income country. For this, the country needs to invest more in education, skills and training." He said the additional financing would help improve the quality of technical and vocational education and training. World Bank's total funding for STEP now stands at $179 million while the Canadian government provided $16.7 million in grants. The Bangladesh government also provided some funds for the project, scheduled to end in 2019. Senior Secretary for Public Administration Kamal Abdul Naser Chowdhury and Education Secretary Md Sohorab Hossain also spoke.
