Teachers were not properly prepared for the creative question system, especially in mathematics, which might be the reason behind poor results, said Muhammad Shah Alamgir, controller of examination of the board, in a press briefing at his office yesterday.

This year the pass rate under this board was 79.41 percent and 64,902 examinees passed among 81,728. The pass rates were 84.3 percent and 90.6 percent respectively in 2015 and 2014.

This year the number of schools with zero pass rate is two while 79 schools have 100 percent pass rates under this board, said Alamgir.
