

CELEBRATING LIFE AT SAU

Celebrating Life Festivals is an arrangement by the Daily Star and Standard Chartered Bank, regarding the collective film, photography and lyrics competition. The winning works from the competition, that aims to capture the Heritage of Bangladesh through Film, Photography and Lyrics, are selected and showcased at different universities across Bangladesh.

A photo exhibition and film screening was arranged recently at the Sher-e-Bangla Agricultural University. A total of 33 photographs from Celebrating Life 2015 were exhibited along with a number of short films and documentaries. The event was inaugurated by the Director of Student Affairs, Prof. Dr. Md. Sekendar Ali. Along with the daylong festivities, much to the students' delight, the event was graced by guest appearances by the veteran lyricist Mohammad Rafiquzzaman and actress Nusrat Imroz Tisha. On behalf of The Daily Star - Standard Chartered Celebrating Life, here are some moments from the event.

GUYS

"The Nice Guys" takes place in 1970s Los Angeles, when a down-on-his-luck private eye Holland March (Gosling) and hired enforcer Jackson Healy (Crowe) must work together to solve the case of a missing girl and the seemingly unrelated death of an adult-film star. During their investigation, they uncover a shocking conspiracy that reaches up to the highest circles of power.

"The Nice Guys" is scheduled for release in theatres on May 20, 2016.
