MITHILA Returns to the Screen

With work, family and her daughter taking up most of her time, TV star Mithila was finding it difficult to manage time for music and television. Despite recently appearing in a TVC, she has been missing from TV dramas for quite some time. However, she will be seen in some TV dramas in the upcoming Eid Ul Fitr. Asked about her recent hiatus, she said that frequent foreign trips from her work and making time for her young daughter keeps her busy, so she cannot make enough time for music or acting.

Appearing alongside her will be numerous popular TV stars. Jon will be seen opposite her in two TV dramas by Maburur Rashid. She will be seen opposite Apurbo in a project by Tanim Rahman Aungshu, and the duo will be joined by Tahsan in a TV drama by Mizanur Rahman Ariyan.
