

KAILASH KHER

happy with response to 'Ishq Anokha'

Singer Kailash Kher is happy with the response his album "Ishq Anokha" has garnered, especially on the social media platforms. "Already it has created a storm. Ishq Anokha's first song had 1 million views in a week or so. We received a lot of praise for it. People have also liked our second video. So we have received a very good response to the album," Kher said in an interview.

The video of "Ishq Anokha" stars Nawazuddin Siddiqui and Sobhita

Dhulipala, who also feature in the upcoming film "Raman Raghav 2.0". The second song, "O Jogi" stars actor-comedian Mantra.

"Ishq Anokha" is Kher's fifth album after "Kailasa", "Jhoomo Re", "Chaandan Mein" and "Rangeele" which had popular songs such as "Teri Deewani", "Tauba Tauba", and "Saiyyaan". His band Kailasa also consists of members like Paresh and Naresh, who also feature in music videos.

Dia Mirza visits ashram where The Beatles once jammed!

Actor and environmental conservationist Dia Mirza set on an enchanting journey with her television debut 'Ganga - The Soul of India.' In the upcoming episode Dia is seen visiting the ashram of Mahesh Yogi in Rishikesh, made famous by The Beatles. The serene surroundings of the forest amidst which stands the structure of the Maharishi Mahesh Yogi ashram can be accessed by visitors via a breathtaking nature trail. Not known to many people, the ashram also housed the famous English rock band the Beatles in February 1968.

Dia reveals that it is while staying at this ashram that the rock band penned down songs for three of their classic albums, Abbey Road, White Album and Rubber Soul! A nature enthusiast and staunch environmentalist, Dia also spent a few moments at the ashram meditating to rejuvenate the body and mind.
