

HARJIT STARRING MAHI AND SAJAL

Actor Sajal and Actress Mahiya Mahi will be seen together as an on screen duo for the first time in "Harjit". Director Badiul Alam Khokon has commented that even though he has worked with popular on screen duos like Shakib Khan and Apu Biswas, he is concerned for the fact that no contemporary is being created in the industry and opportunities should be granted to the newer faces.

He also said that although Mahi has showcased her skills through her works till now, this new project will add a new dimension to her career. The action-romance centered venture will also see Sajal in a completely different light than from that his fans are used to.

Penned by the director himself, the movie will also star the likes of Moushumi, Omar Sunny and Misha Showdagar. The director also informed that the pre-production work are almost completed, and they are ready to start shoring from next month.

Prangonmor stages Bibadi Sargam

Binoy, Badal and Dineshare are brave heroes of the undivided Bengal, and although many of us have heard of them, very few actually know the story of their courage and great sacrifice. The inaugural staging of the play "Bibadi Sargam", which focuses on the story of these three fearless heroes, took place at the Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy last Tuesday. Written and directed by Shishir Rahman, the story of rebelling against the British rule by attacking the Writer's Building was highlighted through the play.

This is the 11th time Prangonmor took to the stage and actors Ramiz Raju, Mainul Touhid, Tuhin, Regan, Shubhechcha Rahman, Nupur, Urmila and Moushumi Mou took part in the production. It is the third production by Prangonmor, after "Ami o Rabindranath" and "Condemned Cell", in three months.

KONGKON returns to TV

Popular TV actress Kongkon will appear on-screen once again this Eid-ul-Fitr. Once a regular on Bangladesh Television, she left her thespian ambitions behind to settle in Canada back in the 90s, yet she continued to work in one or two dramas, upon request from directors, when she returned to Bangladesh on holidays.

This time Kongkon has returned to Bangladesh for a longer stay and has already finished shooting for Salauddin Lavlu's "Koinnya" and Zahid Hasan's "Eid Mubarak". She will also work in two other plays under the direction of Gias Uddin Selim and Mahfuz Ahmed. She started her career on TV when she was a student and first acted in a play titled "Emon Ekta Maa Dena", under the direction of Shahidul Haque Khan.

Kushum Shikder stars in a mini-series

Kushum Shikder impressed viewers with her performance in Goutam Ghosh's "Shankhachil." She has been lauded for her acting by fans and critics alike. With this success added to her suit, Kushum is busy working on dramas for the upcoming Eid. For the first time, Kushum Shikder will be seen under the direction of Ezaz Munna. She is working in his six-episode romance mini series titled "Tumi Ami Ami Tumi."

While talking about the series, Kushum commented, "It is true that working under a reputed director's unit ensured smooth and organized operations. The story is nice and I hope viewers will enjoy it." Director Ezaz Munna said, "Kushum is working under my direction for the first time. Her sense of timing and the capacity to read impressed me a lot." Saju Khadem will star opposite Kushum in the series which is set to air on NTV.
