ZIDANE BRUSHES ASIDE 'OLIVE BRANCH'

Sensational Rashford

AFP, Sunderland
Roy Hodgson insisted Marcus Rashford's dream debut for England came as no surprise after the Manchester United sensation staked his claim for a Euro 2016 place with a record-breaking strike in a 2-1 win over Australia. England manager Hodgson had claimed the world would be watching to see if Rashford could cope with the pressure of what amounted to a one-game audition for a place in his final 23-man squad for the Euros.

And Rashford took just 135 seconds to deliver an emphatic response as the teenage striker's lethal volley opened the scoring in Friday's Euro 2016 warm-up at the Stadium of Light. No player of such a tender age had ever found the net on his England debut and at the age of 18 years and 209 days, Rashford is behind only former Liverpool star Michael Owen (18 years and 164 days) and United captain Wayne Rooney (17 years 317 days) in the list of the youngest scorers in an England shirt.

Germany turn to youth

AFP, Berlin
World champions Germany are set to blood a crop of rising stars in Sunday's friendly at home to Slovakia as head coach Joachim Loew fine-tunes his Euro 2016 squad.

Loew purposefully chose Slovakia, who will make their debut at a European championships in France, as they are expected to play in a similar style to Germany's Group C opponents Ukraine, Poland and Northern Ireland.

Slovakia "will try to knock us out of our rhythm" in Augsburg, according to Loew, who wants to see how some of the new blood in the Germany squad cope with senior football.

Uncapped Joshua Kimmich, Dortmund's Julian Weigl, Leverkusen's Julian Brandt and Schalke's Leroy Sane, none of whom have yet turned 21, are all set to make their debuts.

Real Madrid players celebrate with the Champions League trophy after beating Atletico Madrid in the final with the help of the tie-breaker at San Siro, Milan yesterday.

Messi feeling better

AFP, Buenos Aires
Lionel Messi's condition had improved Saturday after the Barcelona superstar suffered a back injury in Argentina's 1-0 friendly victory over Honduras.

Team doctor Daniel Martinez told La Nacion newspaper that Messi felt less pain in his lower back a day after being left writhing in agony after a heavy collision with a Honduran opponent in the far western city of San Juan.

"Messi is better, with less pain than last night. His recovery is day to day, there are several treatments for this type of blow," Martinez said.

Real in eleventh heaven

REUTERS, Milan

Real Madrid were crowned European champions for an unprecedented 11th time when Cristiano Ronaldo scored the winning penalty in a 5-3 shootout victory over Atletico Madrid on Saturday.

The Champions League final had finished 1-1 after extra time with Sergio Ramos having bundled the ball home to give Real the lead in the 15th minute.

Antoine Griezmann missed a penalty at the start of the second half for Atletico when he fired his shot against the bar.

Atletico, beaten in their two previous final appearances, including the most recent against Real in 2014, suffered a series of let-offs before substitute Yannick Carrasco rifled in the equaliser in the 79th minute to send the game into extra time.

Juanfran missed Atletico's fourth penalty in the shootout and Ronaldo converted to seal victory for Real.

"What an amazing feeling," Real forward Gareth Bale said. "We showed resilience and what we are made of. It was a war of attrition. I cannot describe how it feels."

"The boys gave everything and we deserve it. It was a final and you have to win. We just kept going and we can lift the trophy again now," the Welshman added.

The challenges came in thick and fast early on and Atletico gave away two free kicks in dangerous positions.

They got away with it the first time when Atletico goalkeeper Jan Oblak made a brilliant save on his line to block Casemiro's shot from a Gareth Bale free kick.

But there was no let-off when Bale headed on a Toni Kroos free kick and Ramos prodded the ball over the line.

The second half began dramatically when Pepe clumsily caught Fernando Torres's ankle in the area to give away a penalty. But Griezmann fired his spot-kick against the underside of the bar, possibly distracted by Keylor Navas jumping along his goalline.

Oblak, who had made a brilliant one-on-one save from Karim Benzema, made another superb stop from Cristiano Ronaldo and Stefan Savic cleared Bale's shot off the line.

Atletico immediately went down the other end where Griezmann lifted the ball to Juanfran, who volleyed a cross for Carrasco to fire home from close range.

Neither side looked like breaking the deadlock in extra-time. French football legend Zinedine Zidane became just the seventh man to win the Champions League as a player and a coach after Real Madrid beat Atletico Madrid on penalties on Saturday.

Zidane masterminded a huge turnaround in Real's fortunes just five months into his first senior managerial role as he led the Spanish giants to their 11th European Cup after replacing the sacked Rafael Benitez in January.

His playing career at Real is also most fondly remembered for the sensational winning goal he struck to win the 2002 Champions League final against Bayern Leverkusen.

Serena, Novak march on

AFP, Paris

Top seeds Novak Djokovic and Serena Williams both swept into the last 16 at the French Open on a rain-hit Saturday in Paris, while Dominic Thiem confirmed his status as an outsider to win the men's title.

French hopes of a first home win in 33 years, meanwhile, were dealt a heavy blow when sixth-seed Jo-Wilfried Tsonga retired with a groin injury in the first set of his match with Ernests Gulbis.

Djokovic, who can become just the eighth man to win all four Grand Slam tournaments should be triumphant next weekend, beat Britain's Aljaz Bedene 6-2, 6-3, 6-3 just before the light became too poor to play in.

The Serb, winner of the last three Grand Slam tournaments, has seen his chances of adding the French title considerably improved by the shock injury withdrawal of nine-time champion Rafael Nadal.

Williams, seeking an Open-era, record-equalling 22nd Grand Slam title, was a set up and about to tackle a second set tie-break against France's Kristina Mladenovic when a thunderstorm sent everyone scurrying for cover.

On the resumption, more than two and a half hours later, the top seed and defending champion needed five match points to finish the job going through 6-4, 7-6 (12/10) with Ukraine 18th seed Elina Svitolina next in her line of fire following her victory over former champion Ana Ivanovic.

Uzzal, Tanzila fastest sprinters

SPORTS REPORTER

Uzzal Chandra Sutradhar of Narshingdi and Tanzila Akter of BKSP became the fastest sprinters in their respective 100m dashes in the adolescent category of the 32nd National Junior Athletics Championship at the Bangabandhu National Stadium yesterday.

Uzzal, who hails from Kishoreganj but participated for Narshingdi district, clocked 10:83 seconds to become the fastest, beating BKSP's Zahir Raihan and Marconi Joy by a fair distance. The 19-year-old sprinter, who had become champion in the boys' category of the same event in 2013, was happy to have beaten competitors from BKSP.

"It's always a special feeling if you can beat the participants of BKSP. I'm glad I could do that. I have trained, along with 10 others, for one and a half months with BJMC coach Brojo Gopal Das," said the youngster, who had also won a silver medal in long jump on the previous day.

Uzzal, who is a second-year student of Jessore Science and Technology University, said he wants to do a job in defence forces while his ultimate aim is to get into the national reckoning and do well at the South Asian Games.

Tanzila, meanwhile, said she was happy to have realised her dream of becoming the fastest sprinter in her age category after having failed in three previous attempts. The higher secondary school student from BKSP took 13:10 seconds to win the gold, finishing 0.07 seconds ahead of her teammate Disha Sultana and 0.95 seconds ahead of Asha Khatun of Natore.

"I have participated three times previously in junior athletics and had won three silver medals in 2013. But this is the first time I won the first prize in 100m sprint, which was always my dream," said the girl who hails from Sujaganar in Pabna.

Tanzila, who also won silver medals in 200m sprint and high jump in the current championship, said her dream is to break the 100m national record currently held by Nazmun Nahar Beauty and the 200m national record held by Subarna Akter.

Meanwhile, only one new record was set on the second day of the championship yesterday, with BKSP's Sheuly Khatun setting a new record in 400m sprint clocking 1:65 minutes.

CTG CORPORATE CRICKET Peninsula champs

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Team Peninsula won the AK Khan Corporate Cricket League after defeating AK Khan and Co by 97 runs in the final.

Peninsula were sent into bat after losing the toss and they piled on 230 runs for the loss of seven wickets in the allotted twenty overs.

Peninsula's Sajib gave AB de Villiers a run for his money, scoring 107 runs off just 32 balls. For the opposition, Shyamal and Saiful picked up two wickets apiece.

In reply, AK Khan and Co were bundled out for just 133 runs in 19.2 overs.

Sayem top-scored for the runners-up with 21 off 12, while Peninsula's Galib picked up 3 wickets.

Peninsula's Sajib was named man-of-the-match for his destructive performance with the willow.

Cech breaks Czech caps record

AFP, Prague

Arsenal goalkeeper Petr Cech set a new record for Czech caps on Friday in a Euro 2016 friendly 6-0 win against Malta in Austria.

The 34-year-old former Chelsea stopper won his 119th cap, surpassing the previous mark of 118 he shared with former Manchester United winger Karel Poborsky, who retired in 2006.
