

Savar roof collapse injures 15

BSS, Savar
At least 15 workers were injured as a roof of an under construction tannery building collapsed in Savar yesterday.
Mohammad Quamruzzaman, in-charge of tannery police camp under Savar Model Police Station, said the incident took place when some 40 construction workers were working on the first floor of the under construction building of "Gulshan Tannery of Horindhara".
Witnesses and hospital sources said the injured were undergoing treatment at Enam Medical College Hospital and other local clinics. Conditions of some of them are stated to be critical, said the sources.
Two firefighting units rushed in and pulled out the workers from the debris.

CU officials observe day-long strike

CU CORRESPONDENT
With a four-point demand, the Chittagong University (CU) officials observed a day-long work abstention programme under the banner of CU Officers Association (CUOA) yesterday.
Their demands include filling up vacant posts with internal officials, creating new administrator posts headed by respective sectors' senior officials and creating an additional registrar post for restoring the selection grade and time scale. "We will launch a strict movement after Eid if our demands are not met," said Rashidul Haidar Javed, general secretary of CUOA. CU Registrar (acting) Prof kamrul Huda said he will place their demands before the vice-chancellor.

Roy. After their marriage, her son Bilash Chandra used to live with his mother. But being a stepfather, Bipen could not accept it. Aduri therefore sent him to his grandmother. As the boy opposed to live with the grandmother and returned to his mother, the angry couple killed him on 11 April, 2011. Later police recovered the body and filed a murder case the following day.

Ctg man's body found 2 months after abduction

One arrested
STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Police in Sitakunda upazila of Chittagong yesterday recovered the decomposed body of a man, more than two months after he had gone missing from his house on March 20.
Md Faruk, 27, son of Abul Kashem of Tulatoli area of the upazila, used to work at a scrap metal depot and handle cash of the depot.
On March 20, Faruk's friend, Md Shohel, and his (Shohel's) cohort, Jamal Uddin, took him to a remote hilly area saying they would buy gold from smugglers at a low price.
Since then, Faruk did not return home and he had Tk 6 lakh with him, according to police.
"When they reached Suronger Ghona, a hilly area around seven kilometres away from their locality, the duo hacked him to death and took away the money, leaving the body on the spot," said Sub-inspector Md Iqbal of Sitakunda police.

As Faruk did not return home, his brother, Md Rashed, filed a general diary on March 21 and an abduction case on April 20 against Shohel.
Later, police arrested Jamal, who confessed to his involvement in the murder during an interrogation, added the SI.
Gleaning information from him, police recovered the body around 1:30pm and sent it to Chittagong Medical College Hospital morgue an autopsy, said the SI, adding the abduction case would be turned to a murder case.

HC tells Sir John Wilson School to stop charging extra

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday directed the principal of Sir John Wilson School in the capital's Satarkul area to refrain from charging additional fees from students for the current year.
The court also issued a rule asking the authorities concerned to explain in four weeks as to why they should not be directed to bring the school under Private English Medium Registration Rules, 2007.
Justice Syed Muhammad Dastagir Husain and Justice AKM Shahidul Huq came up with the order and rule following a writ petition filed by 33 guardians.
Education secretary, primary and mass education secretary, director general of directorate of secondary and higher secondary education, director general of directorate of mass education, principal of Sir John Wilson School and chairman of its trustee board have been made respondents to the rule.
The school has been running without any managing committee for the last 21 years, petitioners' counsel Aneek R Haque told The Daily Star, citing from the petition.
The managing committee is the authority to fix the fees, he said, adding that the school collects the fees through its trustee board which is against the 2007 rules, he added.
The lawyer also said the school had collected Tk 1.60 lakh as admission fee from a student and this year it has arbitrarily fixed Tk 1.92 lakh as admission fee.
