

Pinning FASHION!

COVER STORY

When you think of a woman, how do you see her? You see her kohl smudged large eyes and her round curls dangling by the side of her face. Yet the part that might attract you the most is the little dot on her nose that sparkles when she tilts her head and gives you a smile. The tiny dot is not just a random accessory; rather it is a huge part of the collective traditions of the subcontinent.

Nose piercings are now a significant part of fashion and considered the second most popular type of body piercing, only after ear piercing. It is a case of modern fashion embracing traditional sensibilities and updating them to suit its needs.
