Dhaka being cleared of traffic congestion, violence

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina tells JS
STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The government has undertaken initiatives to turn the capital into a clean city free from traffic congestion and violent activities, Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina told parliament yesterday. "Process is going on for the feasibility study of the project -- development of Dhaka city digital monitoring system," she replied to lawmakers' queries. She said it would help "to instantly monitor any case of accident, fire and criminal activity in any part of Dhaka city using information technology and to take necessary measures accordingly."

In a scripted answer, Hasina also said due to steps taken by the Awami League government, the country's law and order situation remains normal, for which foreign investment was increasing. "People are getting justice. As a result, country's people as well as foreigners can lead a normal and peaceful life and are running their businesses," she said, adding that the country was moving forward as the base of the economy was getting stronger. The law enforcing agencies have been directed to bring to book miscreants involved with acts of militancy and anarchy and to take appropriate measures against those who issued directives for staging untoward acts, she said. Portraying the government's measures to ensure the rule of law, Hasina said the government was committed to serve people by ensuring security to lives and property and curbing acts of militancy and violence. She said intelligence bodies have been asked to keep an eye on those involved with militancy and mayhem. Moreover, measures will be taken so that home-bound people can travel hassle-free during the Eid festival, she added. "An inter-ministry meeting will be held tomorrow. A decision will be taken after considering 32 proposals," she said, adding that passengers would not have to bear additional charges. "The government has taken

DSCC knocks down 138 illegal shops in Motijheel

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Dhaka South City Corporation (DSCC) demolished 138 shops for illegally occupying roads at AGB colony in the capital's Motijheel yesterday. The DSCC earlier evicted those shops following a High Court order but the area was occupied again last week, said Magistrate Khan Mohammad Nazmus Soab, who led the drive. On April 13, the HC banned building shops at AGB colony following a writ petition after Prothom Alo on March 20 published a report, "200 shops built occupying road (Sorok dokhol kore 200 doka)". The HC on May 3 gave instruction to remove the shop within 24 hours. In another drive, Dhaka Metropolitan Police evicted hawkers from roads and footpath near Golapshah shrine, led by DMP Commissioner Asaduzzaman Miah.

Unscrupulous traders won't be spared

Ctg DC says ahead of Ramadan
STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Chittagong Deputy Commissioner (DC) Mesbah Uddin yesterday warned of taking stern actions if anyone tries to destabilise the market by hiking the prices of daily essentials during the upcoming Ramadan. He made the warning at a views-exchange meeting arranged by CDA at its conference room, where business leaders, representatives of the Bangladesh Standards and Testing Institute (BSTI) and Consumers Association of Bangladesh (CAB), were also present. "Unscrupulous traders will not be spared," he said. However, the DC smilingly urged to consume less sugar and gram. "If extra sugar is consumed, it will cause diabetes; while extra gram causes gastric," he said humorously. SM Nazer Hossain, central vice president of CAB, emphasised taking immediate steps for keeping the market stable. In the meeting, retailers alleged that they were not getting the daily essentials like gram at the rate fixed at a meeting between the importers and others concerned.

Palestinians, Qatar, Senegal, Sierra Leone, Somalia, Sudan, Togo, Tunisia, Turkey, United Arab Emirates and Yemen. The press conference was organised to brief the media about the prime minister's visit. PM'S VISIT TO SAUDI ARABIA Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina leaves for Saudi Arabia on Friday on a five-day visit to the Kingdom to further expand relations between the two countries with special focus on trade, investment and manpower export. The two countries are likely to sign a number of instruments, including memorandum of understanding (MoU) on Foreign Office Consultation, cultural and technological cooperation, said the foreign minister. "One of the objectives of the visit is to create new avenues of cooperation," Mahmood Ali told reporters. The visit is taking place at the invitation of the Saudi King Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud. During her visit, Hasina will hold a bilateral meeting with Saudi King Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud in Jeddah on June 5, and discuss bilateral, regional and international issues. The PM will perform Umrah on Friday night. Asked whether Bangladesh is expecting full reopening of manpower market in Saudi Arabia, the foreign minister said, "Let's go there first and discuss." Foreign Secretary Haque added, "We are hopeful." The PM will return home on June 7.
