

Fahim Munaim's janazas, burial today

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Eminent journalist and well-known TV personality Syed Fahim Munaim will be buried today at the capital's Banani graveyard, according to Maasranga Television.

Fahim's body will be taken to Jatiya Press Club from the Square Hospital's mortuary for the first namaz-e-janaza at 10:00am.

The second and third janazas will be held at Maasranga Television Centre on Bir Uttam Ziaur Rahman Road around 11:30am and Gulshan Azad Mosque after Juma prayers, a Maasranga TV official also said.

The chief executive officer and chief editor at Maasranga Television, Fahim Munaim, who devoted his whole life to building professional and ethical journalism in the country, died from a cardiac arrest at his Gulshan residence on Wednesday, aged 63.

A former executive editor of The Daily Star, Fahim left behind his wife, three sons and a daughter-in-law.

Obama writes to Xulhaz's family

DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENT

2nd Edition

US President Barack Obama in a letter to the family of slain LGBT activist Xulhaz Mannan has expressed deepest condolences saying the pain of loss is indescribable.

Xulhaz, an employee of the US Agency for International Development (USAID), who also served the US Embassy in Dhaka with distinction, and his friend Mahbub Tonoy were brutally killed at his (Xulhaz) residence on April 25.

A family member of Xulhaz confirmed about receiving a letter from the US president. The Daily Star obtained a copy of the letter.

The US president and his wife Michelle in the letter dated May 5 said, "Michelle and I join you in heartbreak and grief, and we extend our deepest condolences.

"The pain of a loss like this is indescribable. Guided by his commitment to shaping a more just and equal future across Bangladesh, Xulhaz devoted his life to service.

"I hope it brings you some measure of solace to know that his courageous, compassionate spirit will endure through all who knew and loved him, and in all who are inspired by the difference he made-now and for generations to come.

"During this extraordinarily difficult time, please know I am holding you in my thoughts."

CNG filling stations to stay open 24hrs from July 1 to 10 for Eid

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The government has decided to keep open all the CNG refuelling stations countrywide round the clock for 10 days from July 1 to ensure smooth travel of people during the Eid-ul-Fitr.

The decision was taken at an interministerial meeting chaired by Road Transport and Bridges Minister Obaidul Quader at a restaurant in the capital yesterday.

Laws must be enforced to stop plying of Nasiman, Karimon, easybike and other unfit and unregistered vehicles on highways during Eid rush to prevent road crashes, said discussants at the meeting.

Movement of truck, covered-van, lorry and other heavy vehicles will before and after the Eid, expected to be celebrated on July 6. However, the vehicles carrying perishable goods will remain out of the purview of this rule.

MIGRATION

Cut economic, social cost

Urge activists, returnees STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Rights activists and returnee migrants and their families yesterday demanded that the government take effective measures to reduce economic and social costs of labour migration.

The cost for low skilled Sri Lankan migrants is equal to one month's earnings in Kuwait and for Indians 2.5 months' but for Bangladeshis it is 9 months', said RMMRU Executive Director Prof CR Abrar. He was highlighting the issues at a public hearing the Refugee and Migratory Movements Research Unit (RMMRU) organised for the purpose in the capital's Cirdap auditorium. Since 2013, Bangladeshis have been paying the highest amount, around Tk 12 lakh, to find jobs in Saudi Arabia while it is on an average Tk 3.5 lakh for other Middle Eastern countries, he added. Some returnee migrants and their families alleged being exploited through excessive charging by recruiting agents, which was "really difficult to earn even in two or three years".

They demanded that the government establish a mechanism to reduce the SEE PAGE 9 COL 6
