

TANVIR TAREK'S NEW SONGS

Tanvir Tarek is back in front of the audience, this time with two brand new songs. The music video for one of them, "Dotana", which has been written and composed by him, has already been released. Popular vocalist Alif Alauddin has performed alongside him in the duet, where Yamin Elan directed the music video. Alif Alauddin commented, "The song has a rhythm that is universal, and everyone will like it. The video looks superb as well." Speaking to a correspondent about his new production, Tanvir said, "I try to make each of my songs unique and take special care in producing them. I hope this will also be accepted among the crowds. Apart from this, a song titled 'Tomar Shohor Amar Shohor' will be released soon under CD Choice's banner."

Purnima returns in full swing

Popular movie actress Purnima has made a full-fledged return to acting after her recent hiatus from the industry. Soon after finishing up with her work in TV plays ahead of the upcoming Eid, she has jumped right back in as a model for an upcoming TVC.

Her last portrayal as a model was over a year back and she has shot throughout the week, in a commercial for a LPG company, helmed by Shoraf Ahmed. Speaking about her experience, she said that she hopes it will be different from her other works that she has done till now.

Purnima is currently shooting for the telefilm "Firey Jawa Holo Na" opposite Hridoy Khan, which is set to air in BanglaVision this Eid.

BALAM-JULEE Performing After 7 Years

Balam and Julee are returning to the music scene after seven years with a duet performance for the fans. The song titled, "Koto Je Khujechi Tomaye" was tuned and composed by Balam himself. The sibling duo last performed seven years ago with the track "Shopner Prithibi." Although they have performed from time to time in jingles, films and commercials, this is their first full song since then, which is set to be released complete with its very own music video directed by Tanim Ahmed Aungshu.

The track is set to be released before the upcoming Eid on YouTube and various television channels. Balam said, "It feels great to perform a stunning piece with Julee after such a long time. I hope the fans will like it." "I have performed to a song that has been tuned and composed by him after a long time, and it feels great. It is an amazing song and I hope the fans will feel the same way," Julee added.

KOBORI in upcoming Eid play

Legendary film actress and former Member of Parliament, Sarah Begum Kobori last made a 13-episode TV series. On the occasion of the coming Eid-ul-Fitr, she is making a special play titled "Tumi Bhalo Theko", the shooting for which is already underway.

Riaz and Sumaiya Shimu are acting in the two lead roles, under the story written by Akash Ronjan. Kobori will be portraying an exceptional role for the viewers on this occasion. Shahidullah Shovon has been working in the camera direction of the play. Kobori informed that the play will be aired on Banglavisision on Eid-ul-Fitr.

Kobori appeared in a serial titled "Abar Ashibo Firey" starring Riaz and Ahona last July.
