

The Genius has been robbed

Rapper and self-proclaimed "Lyrical Genius" Kanye West's Calabasas office has been robbed. Law enforcement sources said they got a call to Kanye's Calabasas office for a burglary. His office's door had been pried open overnight and the buglers took off with electronics, mainly laptops and desktop computers, totaling around USD 20k.

Just a week ago, TV personality Scott Disick's house was ransacked while the husband of Kourtney Kardashian was away partying in Cannes. A similar incident happened at the house of Rob Kardashian's fiancée Blac Chyna. There were no signs of forced entry at both incidents, leading to speculations that they were an inside job.

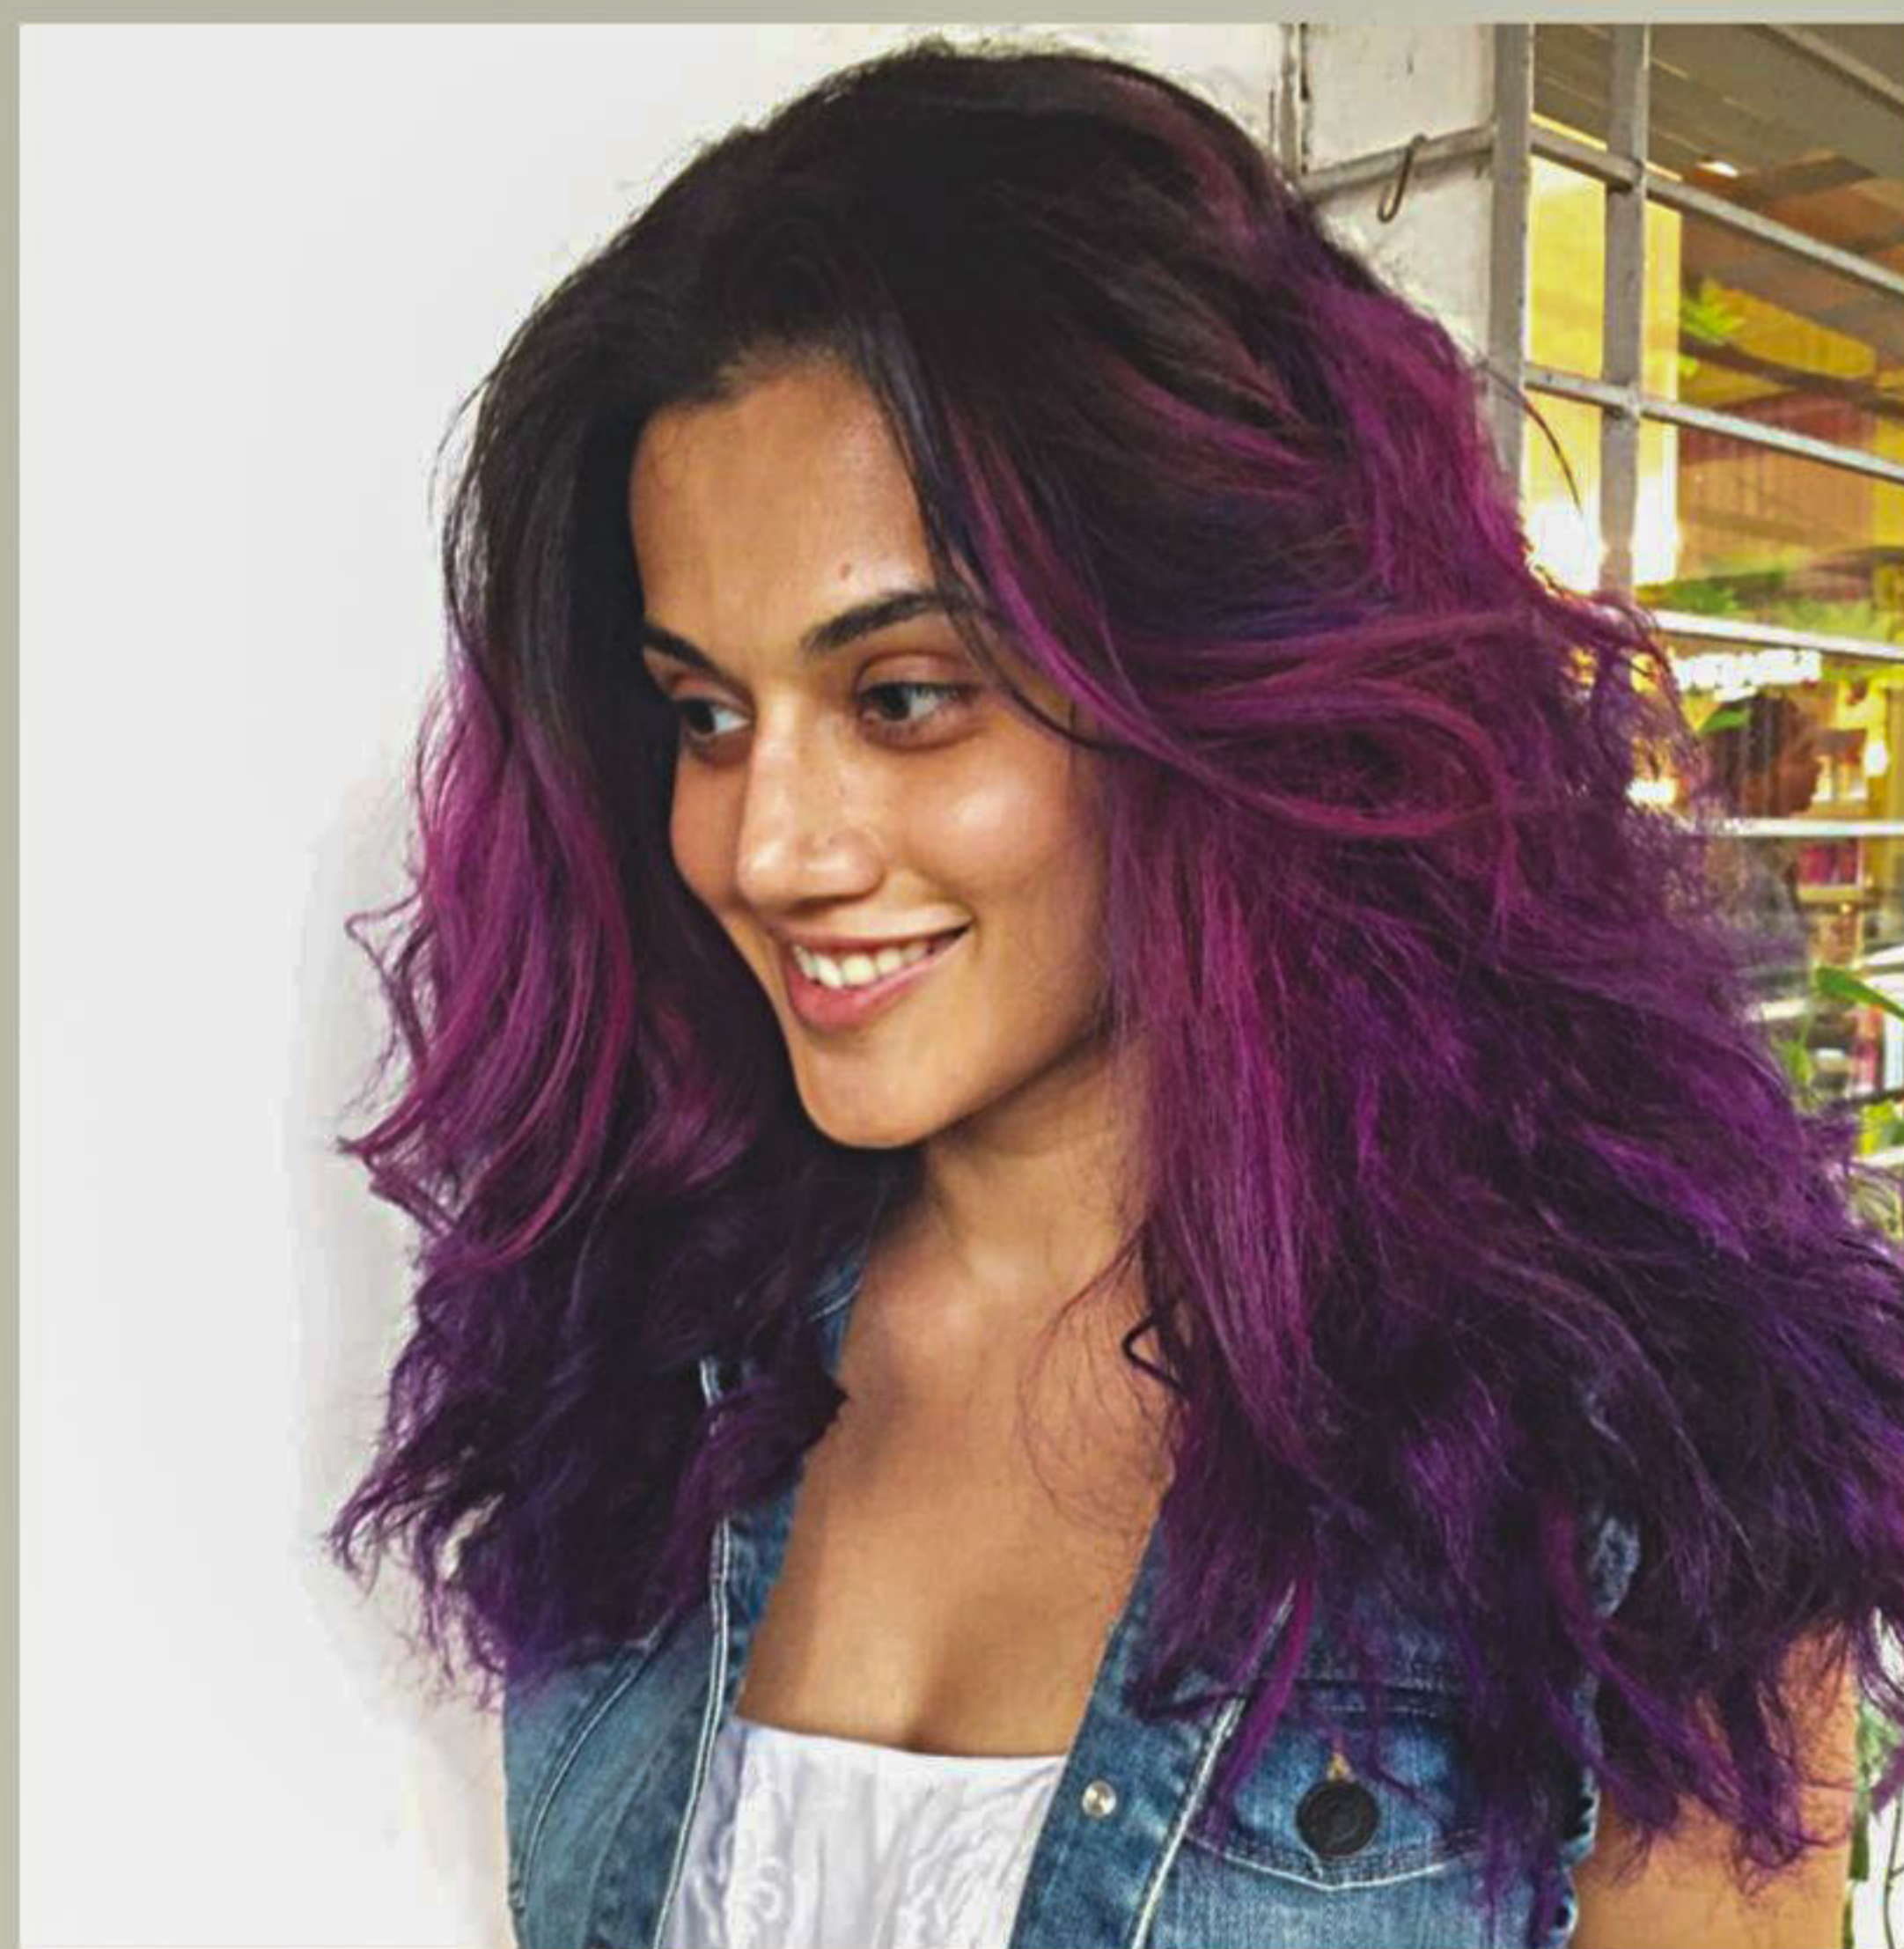

DANIEL CRAIG 'exhausted' from playing James Bond

Actor Daniel Craig is "exhausted" from playing James Bond, according to his former co-star Judi Dench. The 81-year-old actress, who played M opposite Craig three times, believes that the actor needs a break.

"I should think he is exhausted, absolutely exhausted," Dench said. When asked who she believes should replace him, Dench said: "Who do I see as the next Bond? I don't know really. It is nothing to do with me; it is up to Barbara Broccoli and Michael Wilson!"

Craig admitted last year that he had enough after starring in four 007 films and joked that he would "rather slash my wrists" than reprise the role. The actor, who netted a reported total of 38 million pounds for the four films he has appeared in. Actor Tom Hiddleston is rumoured to be in talks to replace Craig for the role of the iconic British spy.

TAAPSEE PANNU'S purple moment

After Aishwarya Rai Bachchan's purple lips and Sunny Leone's pink hair, it is Taapsee Pannu who is taking the mantle of rebellious fashion ahead. The actress has dyed her hair to pink and purple recently and cannot be happier about her look.

The actress says, "I am independent and free-spirited, sometime impulsive and when the opportunity to do something fun came by way, I grabbed it instantly. I like the fact that my hair colour is bold and it stands out. Purple is striking and I am so excited about it. I was inspired by Kate Winslet's look from Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind and I hope mine looks just as perfect."
