Tangail Saree Kutir opens at Gulshan 1

Tangail Saree Kutir is a name recognised by almost every sari lover of our country. It is known for its trendy, fashionable, and yet elegant 'deshi' saris. The store opened its sixth branch at Police Plaza Concord in Gulshan 1 this Friday.

The store has a collection of all the types of saris this brand is famous for. Starting from jamdanis to cottons to silk, the shop has it all. Their jamdanis are one of a kind; and the prices range from Tk 10,000 to more than a lakh for a piece. Naturally the jamdanis ranging from Tk 45000 and above are superbly tasteful and elegant. On the opening day, the store had a corner of jamdanis in pastel shades that are gorgeously suitable for the summer.

As the name suggests, the store's primary focus is on its collection of Tangail saris, which is huge and features a lot of variety in terms of prices, quality and designs starting for as low as Tk 600, and above, depending on how many days it took the weaver to finish.

Tangail Saree Kutir has been a pioneer in fashion since the very beginning, steadily providing its consumers with beautiful, traditional Bangladeshi saris. It is not just a local name, but have taken local traditional weave to the international forum.

So go Deshi this Eid, support local trailblazers, and treat yourself at a Tangail Saree Kutir outlet. Their branches are on Baily road, Eastern Plaza, Bashundhara City shopping mall; Happy Orchid, Dhanmondi; Latif Emporium, Uttara and at Police Plaza, Gulshan 1.
